Dean of Senate Labels Session 'Toughest' Yet

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress goes home this week — maybe — after what one old-timer calls 'the toughest Senate session" of them all

Those are the words of Sen George who has plenty of sessions to draw from The Georgia Democrat tops all present senators in length of service having first won election to the Senate Nov. 7, 1922

Senate Majority Leader Knowland of California said over the weekend Congress would finish by next Saturday 'for sure '

He said prospects are 'excellent' for winding up by the middle of the week — but then decided he'd better not pinpoint the day He remembered he said that he'd once predicted July 31 for the windup

When the Senate gets through determines when the House does, for the 435-man House with its tight curbs on debate has whisked through legislation this year just about twice as fast as the free-talking, 96-man Senate

"I'm certain " said George in an interview today, "that this has been the most strenuous (Senate session) in lengthy hours

"We always have long hours just before adjournment but they have been going on for weeks now We seem to be doing most of our legislating at the tag end of the session."

Lauds Revision

Eisenhower Signs Bill on Tax Reform

By CHARLES F. BARRETT

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower today signed into law the biggest tax revision program in history — what he called a "monumental" overhaul that will "benefit all Americans "

The new law, Eisenhower said in a statement, will "help millions of Americans by giving them a fairer tax treatment ' At the same time, he added, it "will help our economy expand and thus add materially to the strength of our nation '

Billion Cut First Year

The new law brings about tax reductions of $1 363,000 000 in the first year, and more later on for millions of individuals and nearly all corporations

In all, the initial year s tax cuts will total about $1 363,000,000 This will be increased later as the new program takes full effect

Invited to the White House signing ceremony were Republican congressional leaders and top Treasury officials

Eisenhower has called tax revision the cornerstone of his entire domestic program The measure makes no major changes in revenue rates but rewrites almost every tax law on the books

Many Democrats contend the GOP tax program is slanted in favor of corporations and the wealthy.

Four General Lines

Republican leaders argued that the tax changes will remove many "shackles" from business expansion, encourage growth, create more and better jobs for workers, and give the whole economy a boost

The measure nearly 1 000 pages in length and marking the first major tax revision since 1875 calls for changes along four general lines

1 It eliminates what its sponsors call harsh inequities on many individuals with special needs or problems' These provisions include new or bigger tax deductions for medical expenses, retired persons, sick-leave pay, dependent children who earn more than $600, mothers

Speed Pledged On McCarthy Censure Study

Sen. Watkins Says Committee To Take All Possible Shortcuts

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen Watkins (R-Utah) said today his special six-member committee will "take every possible shortcut" toward a report on censure charges against Sen McCarthy (R-Wis) so the Senate can vote on the issue before the November election

But Senators Knowland (R-Calif) and George (D-Ga) agreed that unless findings are ready for Senate action by the first week in October it may be impossible to get senators to interrupt re-election campaigns to return to Washington

Dutch Oppose EDC Revision

THE HAGUE Netherlands (AP)—The Dutch government today called French-proposed amendments to the European Defense Community treaty "an impossible basis for agreement' among the six prospective partners

A Foreign Ministry communique said "although the French proposals will be studied further," the government "could not see how on this basis agreement can be reached at the Brussels meeting" of the six powers' foreign ministers opening Thursday.

The Netherlands, like West Germany, Belgium and Luxembourg, has ratified the treaty as it stands to create a unified army, including West German troops, under a supra-national command The French who seek now to cut down the supra-national powers and the Italians have yet to ratify.

Mitchell, Hall Disagree Over Ike's Program

Chairmen of GOP, Democratic Parties Address Bar Meeting

CHICAGO (AP) — The chairmen of the two major political parties drew widely different appraisals of the Eisenhower administration today

Stephen A Mitchell, chairman of the Democratic National Committee discussed GOP farm policies, foreign policy and the 83rd Congress at a meeting of the insurance section of the American Bar Assn , now holding its 77th annual meeting Chicago

Mitchell in his prepared address, said America's farmers "are making four billion dollars a year less than they were in 1952 " and added

"They have lost one dollar of income out of every four All the new Republican farm program offers is still lower prices and lower income '

Hall, in a similar prepared address said of the administration's farm program

"The Eisenhower administration with commendable courage and farsightedness, has obtained an improved farm bill This provides price supports for six basic commodities between 82½ and 90 per cent of parity Its aim is a better balance in agricultural pro-

House Passes Bill Hiking Debt Limit

BULLETIN

Passage was by standing vote of 193 to 31 with some expressions of doubt as to how temporary the increase would be.

Congress Will Try for New Anti-Red Bill

White House Session Produces Agreement On Outlawing of Party

WASHINGTON (AP)— Congressional leaders agreed at a White House conference today to try to push through Congress a new bill to outlaw the Communist party as such

In a session with President Eisenhower the decision was to get the House to pass a measure declaring the Communist party is unlawful and without any rights

It would not make membership in the party by individuals unlawful But Speaker Martin (R-Mass) and Sen Ferguson (R-Mich) said the government already can go after individual Communists, and is doing so, under the Smith Act which makes it illegal to conspire to overthrow the government.

New Approach

The new approach is intended to supplant a bill that whipped through the Senate last week which would make it a crime to belong to the Communist party provided a person committed an overt act while a party member.

Ferguson explained the plan agreed upon today approaches the question from the standpoint of the Communist party as such rather than individual members

Martin and Ferguson, the latter chairman of the Senate Republican Policy Committee said the new plan is acceptable to the administration They said Atty Gen Brownell sat in on the White House discussions this morning.

May Suspend Rules

Sen Knowland of California, the GOP Senate leader, told reporters he thought the House might pass the new bill today under a suspension of the rules

He said he also expects Senate action this week on three other antisubversive bills that would make it easier to remove security risks who are employed in defense plants, tighten penalties for peacetime espionage, and deny pensions or other benefits to government employees who are convicted under loyalty actions or refuse to testify on such issues

The administration had been dissatisfied with the bill passed by the Senate

Without a dissenting vote, the Senate passed a bill providing stiff fines and jail terms for anyone holding membership in the Communist party and actively carrying out its purposes

Ike Disagrees

On Saturday officials close to the President described him as opposing the Senate measure on grounds it would make 'propaganda martyrs' of the Reds, and reporters were told he planned to ask the House to kill it

To meet the administration's objections, House leaders and Justice Department officials hurriedly drafted a new bill which would strip the Communist party of its legal status but which omitted the Senate provisions aimed at punishing individual party members

The outdoor service brought together believers of many creeds and customs in one of this country's greatest displays of Christian faith The massive crowd, brought to Chicago by four special trains, 503 chartered buses and 9,300 automobiles from all over the nation jammed the huge stadium and packed the entrances

The number inside before the service began was estimated by Park District Police Chief George A Otlewis as "more than 125 000 ' At the same time, an announcer said 30 000 were outside, unable to get in

Rubber Union, Industry Press Contract Talks

CLEVELAND (AP)—Contract talks continue today between the CIO United Rubber Workers Union and each of the rubber industry s "big four ' producers two of which are crippled by strikes

The walkouts have idled more than 48 000—or about a third—of the industry's workers

Latest firm hit was the Firestone Tire & Rubber Co whose 25,500 employees left their jobs in 10 plants across the nation Thursday night

Firestone and union negotiators are meeting in Cleveland, as are officials from Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co which was struck July 7 by its 23 000 workers

Both firms offered pay raises of five cents an hour, which the union has rejected

In talks with Goodyear, the rubber workers union has demanded a hike of 7½ cents an hour plus five cents hourly to adjust interplant 'inequities " It has not made public demands on Firestone but they are believed to be similar

In New York the union has been holding talks with the U S Rubber Co whose 35 000 employees have been working past a contract expiration on a day-to-day basis

Talks covering 18,000 workers are being held in Cincinnati with the B F Goodrich Co , whose contract also has expired

Dairy Support Final Hurdle For Farm Bill

Senate-House Group Making New Attempt To Draft Compromise

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate-House conferees try again today to settle their differences over price support levels for dairy products—the last major obstacle to the writing of a compromise farm bill

Argument over dairy supports led to an angry breakdown of talks Saturday but conference leaders later agreed to another meeting today after a weekend cooling-off period

Still Optimistic

The renewal of talks was negotiated by Sen Aiken (R-Vt) and Rep Hope (R-Kan) who head the agriculture committees and the conferees of the two houses This was viewed as a sign that Aiken and Hope were still optimistic about chances of a dairy dispute compromise

Senate conferees have said this is the last major roadblock to complete agreement on a farm bill that would carry out President Eisenhower s plan for a shift to flexible price supports on five basic crops

Aiken with powerful backing from Eisenhower and Secretary of Agriculture Benson wants hold price supports for butter, cheese milk and other dairy products at the present level Benson last April cut dairy props from 90 to 75 per cent of parity

Okays Lower Levels

Parity is a price standard said by law to be fair in relation to farm costs

The Senate after a stiff floor battle approved the lower dairy support level although the House had voted for an increase to 80 per cent effective between Sept 1 and next April The House also inserted directives for fixing the dairy price props after that date

Judge Frees Osteopath on $50,000 Bail

Prosecution Protests Action Granting Bond On First Degree Count

CLEVELAND (AP)—Bond of $50 000 was granted Dr Samuel H. Sheppard in a surprise move today shortly after the grand jury began considering first degree murder charges against him

Release of the 30-year-old osteopath accused in the July 4 slaying of his wife was expected momentarily A bondsman was standing nearby when Common Pleas Judge William K Thomas made his decision

Shortly before his announcement on bail which the prosecution said it would 'vigorously oppose ' Judge Thomas continued a preliminary hearing of the charge against Sheppard until Wednesday. This permitted by-passing of the hearing in favor of direct grand jury presentation

The rescheduling was regarded as a technicality to keep alive the first degree murder warrant against the 30-year-old osteopath.

In arguing for bail, William J. Corrigan, Sheppard s chief counsel, said Sheppard had made no effort to leave the county between the time his wife was slain at their lakefront home, and July 30 when he was arrested, Corrigan added.

We feel he should be released because of the circumstances of the case "

The attorney said defendants are entitled to bail in first degree murder cases except "where the evidence is overwhelming "

The prosecution is expected to take several days to complete presentation of its case to the grand jury

A preliminary hearing determines whether sufficient evidence exists to hold a prisoner for grand jury action However, in Ohio, a prosecutor may submit evidence

Violent Storm Rips Okinawa

Winds of 80 miles an hour and heavy rains are still pounding the island and all residents are still in typhoon-proof shelters

A number of unoccupied quonset huts were destroyed, some roofs were ripped off and communication lines were cut

The typhoon is moving toward South Korea and is expected to hit tomorrow night Weather experts said the storm has lost much of its violence and no heavily populated area is in its path

A second typhoon is approaching Japan and winds of 60 miles an hour are forecast for Tokyo tomorrow evening.

U.S. Navy Ready To Start Vietnamese Evacuation

ABOARD FLAGSHIP ESTES (AP) —U S Navy units today converged on Haiphong Indochina, to begin what some experts call history's greatest mass civilian evacuation by sea

The gigantic operation will move hundreds of thousands of Vietnamese from Northern Indochina before the Iron Curtain of communism falls there

Rear Adm L. S Sabin, commander amphibious group, Western Pacific, will command the huge sea operations

The first ship — the troop transport Menard — arrived in Haiphong Sunday It will be loaded as soon as French and Vietnamese officials can move refugees to loading areas

Adm Sabin said he does not know how many men, women and children will be transported to Southern Viet Nam. There have been varying estimates ranging from 100 000 to 750 000

As many as 40 ships may participate in the operation These will include transports, cargo ships and amphibious craft

Adm Sabin's staff has been working day and night on the problems of loading, unloading food, sanitation and medical care

Two typhoons sweeping the Western Pacific have slowed the arrival of some ships

Compromise Planned

Congress Leaders Work Toward Atom Bill Vote

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congressional leaders indicated today that they may pry the atomic energy bill out of the congressional logjam the next day or so

Speaker Martin (R-Mass) said after a legislative conference at the White House they would appoint House conferees to meet with those of the Senate immediately.

Chairman Ferguson (R-Mich) of the Senate Republican Policy Committee, said that would mean the conferees might be able to work out a compromise late today so that the Senate could vote on it tomorrow The Senate already has rejected an earlier conference compromise

Ferguson said he anticipated the conferees could come up with a version that would be acceptable to Senate Democrats who voted down the original compromise

House negotiators, however, seemed determined not to yield on the issue

Conflict centered on whether private firms should be allowed sole patent rights on civilian nuclear power developments, as is permitted under normal patent laws.

The Senate called for a 10-year period of compulsory patent sharing It threw out Friday, 48-41, a compromise without that provision that had been worked out in conference with the House

Rep. W Sterling Cole (R-NY) told a reporter he believes most House conferees will continue fighting the Senate proposal And, in apparent answer to Senate criticism, he said he had acted only as representative of a House majority in insisting on exclusive patent rights.

TENTATIVE MAP OF NORTH-SOUTH TURNPIKE ROUTES. Tentative routes of the proposed north-south Ohio turnpike, with one branch to north western Ohio and the other to the northeastern section, are shown on this map. State Highway Director Samuel O. Linzell has conducted a series of conferences with officials of towns and counties along the routes to determine local wishes concerning the proposed routings. Solid lines indicate the tentative plans and the dotted lines show the route of the east-west turnpike now under construction. Present plans for the north-south routes would use the east-west highway as links south of Cleveland and Toledo. However, northeastern Ohio officials have indicated a desire to loop the toll road closer to the center of Cleveland.

As homicide detectives continued their investigation into the July 4 murder, quarterback Otto Graham of the Cleveland Browns professional football team appeared at police headquarters yesterday with his wife.

Routine Questioning

The Grahams, friends of the Sheppards, said they knew little about the relationship existing between the osteopath and his wife.

Homicide Capt. David E. Kerr said the questioning had been purely of a routine nature and was done simply because of the friendship between the two couples.

Also questioned by police was Bay Village Mayor J. Spencer Houk, who was given two lie detector tests.

Police said the tests backed up Houk's denial of a suggestion by Dr. Stephen Sheppard, the accused man's brother, that the mayor might have had a romantic interest in the murdered woman.

Senate Republican leader Knowland of California told the Senate Saturday night he would be "very disappointed if there were returned to the Senate legislation that does not contain a provision outlawing the Communist party."

Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn), author of the provision which swept the Senate, said he would not stand for efforts to "scuttle" it.

In passing the bill, the Senate tacked to it an administration-backed measure which would deny Communist-dominated labor unions or other oranizations rights under the Taft-Hartley law.

American Airlines Lays Off 1,900 in Walkout by Pilots

CHICAGO (AP)—American Air Lines, struck by its pilots for more than two weeks, today laid off about 1,900 stewardesses, flight engineers and ground workers.

The air line today notified an additional 12,000 employes across the nation that their employment will be terminated in two weeks unless the strike is settled.

A spokesman for the 1,200 pilots of the AFL Air Line Pilots Assn., who walked off the job July 30, said there appeared to be little chance of an immediate settlement of the dispute with the air line.

The pilots struck in a dispute over coast-to-coast, nonstop flight schedules. They object to pilots flying nonstop for more than eight hours, but these flights have been approved by the Civil Aeronautics Board. The union contends such flights are unsafe.

The air line contends the union did not cooperate with federal mediators who attempted to settle the dispute.

It permits much faster deductions for wear and tear on new equipment and buildings, a special deduction on stockholders' income from dividends, more freedom to pile up surplus funds for future expansion, more liberal treatment of research expenses, more liberal provisions for deducting losses in bad years from profits in good years, and many other such items.

3. The entire tax code is streamlined and clarified. Tougher penalties for evasion are included.

4. It plugs some 50 loopholes believed to have let some people duck their fair share of taxes.

The measure also extends the present 52 per cent corporation income tax rate for one more year, to bring in an estimated $1,200,000,000.

One change affects all individual taxpayers: April 15—instead of the traditional March 15—is set as the deadline for filing income tax returns.

Most of the new benefits go into effect for the year which began last Jan. 1 and will show up in tax returns due next April 15.

"I am reasonably sure that we can do it," he said, "but I don't want to set any time limit because our progress will depend on the amount of cooperation we receive."

Sen. Edwin C. Johnson (D-Colo), the committee's vice chairman, predicted a report before Oct. 1. The Senate Democratic leadership, he said on a CBS television program last night, "wants a vote" on the censure issue.

Short Cut Possible

Watkins said much testimony may be eliminated by accepting Senate documents produced in past investigations and by permitting McCarthy to make any explanation that he cares to give. He said the three senators who made charges against McCarthy will be asked to testify only about matters of personal knowledge in support of their charges.

The three senators are Flanders (R-Vt), Fulbright (D-Ark) and Morse (Ind-Ore). Their charges, a number of which overlap, range from accusations about McCarthy's financial affairs to contentions that he has ridiculed other senators and public officials.

McCarthy demanded yesterday that Flanders return from Europe, where he has gone for a three-week vacation, to repeat under oath the 33 charges Flanders made against the Wisconsin senator. Flanders, in London, said he would return at once if asked by Watkins — not McCarthy.

Atom Bill

He said his position would be determined by the majority stand, "as it always is."

Democrats charged on the Senate floor last week that one "stubborn man" — referring to Cole — was blocking agreement on the measure putting private industry into atomic energy.

17-Year Plan

The version tossed out by the Senate would have allowed exclusive patent rights to private firms in the atomic energy field for 17 years, renewable for the same length of time, provided the patents did not cover developments made under government auspices. It would also have directed the Atomic Energy Commission to give preference in granting atomic equipment licenses to companies agreeing to share patent rights for the first five years.

Senate Democrats charged — and administration supporters denied — that this did not adequately safeguard the future atomic power industry from becoming a private monopoly.

During first compromise negotiations, four of the five House conferees voted with Cole on the patent issue. They were joined eventually by three Republican senators.

Cole says he is opposed to any form of compulsory patent-sharing calling it unconstitutional and contrary to American free enterprise.

In the area, Rev. Delbert Cress from Cridersville was appointed to the Oceola Church succeeding Rev. Dick Powell, and Rev. M. R. Fry from the Somerset Church was named to the Carey pastorate in the place of Rev. S. L. Shockey who retired.

SOME 90 BOYS and girls left this morning for a 14-day vacation at the Salvation Army Greenwood Lake Camp in Delaware. Here senior captain Mary Nisiewicz and some of the first group to leave urge some late-comers to hurry or be left behind. The camp is sponsored by the Community Chest for those youngsters who need a vacation. The youths are chosen by the County Welfare Department, the Family Service Society, the Child Welfare Board and the Salvation Army. They will return Aug. 27. Earlier this year, a group of 46 was given a vacation at the Glendale, O., camp of the Salvation Army.

Foreign Policy Hit

Hall said the House GOP members stood firm for the administration's "sound program, but the Democrats fought us."

Of the administration's foreign policy, Mitchell said:

"The raw isolationism of the 1920s was no more deadly than is the sugar-coated isolationism of today — whether it is served with a slogan by a smiling Eisenhower or bullied down our throats by a sneering McCarthy over the prostrate body of Dulles."

Hall said the administration, burdened with a rather grim legacy when it took office, "was immediately presented with six highly critical situations," which he listed as Korea, Guatemala, Iran, Suez, the European Defense Community and Indochina.

"The outcome of five of these six tests can be termed a plus," Hall said. "To be candid, the sixth (Indochina) must be accounted something of a minus for reasons quite beyond control of this administration. . . ."

Concerning economic conditions under the administration, Mitchell told the group:

"At any rate, you all know we're in a recession. You know production and income are not where they were or where they ought to be. Secretary Weeks might be able to stimulate the economy by using next year's funds this year just before election, but there will be a compensating loss of stimulus after election."

Hall said:

"For the first time in the recent history of politics, we have witnessed the curious spectacle of a party caught flat-footed by good times. For that is exactly what happened to the gloom-and-doom division of the Democratic party which, only a few months ago, was crying 'Wolf!'

"This wolf, of course, was at Uncle Sam's economic door and ready to move in.

"We all know this fancied depression never came off."

Insistent Rhee Clings to Plan To Rout Reds

SEOUL (AP) — President Syngman Rhee chose Korea's independence day to announce a "certain plan" for driving the Communists from North Korea, and Red chieftain Kim Il Sung warned his troops to guard against attack from the South.

"This is not as yet a day of liberation," Rhee told a crowd of 30,000 yesterday in ceremonies observing the ninth anniversary of Korea's liberation from Japan.

"It is our hope that the United Nations will cooperate with us in pushing up to the Yalu River and in driving the Communists out of Korea," the 79-year-old President added. He did not elaborate on his "certain plan."

Kim, in an order of the day from his North Korean capital at Pyongyang, declared that "conspiratorial activities of the United States imperialism and the Syngman Rhee gang to wreck the Korean armistice and provoke a new war have become more overt."

Bucyrian Awaiting Grand Jury Term On Assault Charge

BUCYRUS—James F. Zarcone, 30, Bucyrus, was held to the Crawford County Grand jury under $1,000 bond at his arraignment here Saturday before Justice of Peace Robert C. Neff on an assault charge. He furnished bond and was released from city jail.

Justice Neff said he asked no plea from Zarcone, who, through his attorney, vigorously denied the charge filed by Mrs. Roberta Martin, about 22, of Bucyrus.

Mrs. Martin testified the incident allegedly occurred Friday when Zarcone answered an advertisement regarding a rug. She alleged that he made improper advances to her and pursued her around a table. Testimony also was offered by the woman's husband and a neighbor, Justice Neff reported.

Two Men Held For Jury After Shooting Fray

Two Marion men who attempted to shoot each other last night pleaded guilty to charges of shooting with intent to wound in Municipal Court today and were bound over to the Marion County Grand Jury under $2,500 bonds each.

Levi Choice, 45, of 880 Kenton Ave. and Steve Lanier, 47, of 696 Hocking St., were arrested about 10 p.m. Sunday on Kenton Ave. after neighbors called police and reported two men were shooting firearms.

Cruiser patrolman John Long was nearby and arrived seconds later to find Choice standing in a driveway at 874 Kenton Ave. Questioning Choice, Patrolmen Long learned that he had been involved in the shooting and the other man was inside the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Walker at 874 Kenton Ave.

Other patrolmen, led by Captain George Manley arrived and found Lanier inside the house. They also found that a large front window of the house had been blown out by a shotgun blast.

Police Chief Thomas B. Coon said today that Choice had fired a 16-gauge shotgun through the window at Lanier and Lanier pumped three shots from a German-made P-38 automatic pistol at Choice.

"Luckily neither aimed their guns very good and no one was injured," Coon said.

Both Walker and his wife, Helen, had run out the rear door of their residence when the shooting started.

Both men surrendered their guns to police, Coon said. Choice had hidden his in a nearby house and Lanier had hidden his under a mattress on a bed in the Walker house by the time Long arrived. Both guns were loaded with live cartridges when police found them.

Both men told police the reason for their shooting at each other was "personal differences," but would explain no further.

Fear of Hitler

By George Sokolsky

Dr. Otto John, who spent some time in the United States last spring, devoting himself to a study of our counter-espionage activities, must now be regarded as part of the Kremlin apparatus.

SOKOLSKY

On the air, over Deutschland sender," the East German radio station, he said:

"Dr. Adenauer's one - sided link up with American policy, and the remilitarization and revival of National Socialism connected therewith, are bound to lead to a new war which would not only bring yet greater and more unimaginable sufferings upon the German people, but would also prejudice the further existence of our people as a nation. I say this fully conscious of my responsibility, on the strength of my own experience and knowledge of truly decisive factors which are not unknown to the leading personalities in Bonn with whom I have been working.

"Warnings alone are no longer sufficient; action is needed. . . . I have followed the voice of my conscience, and I am convinced that I have chosen the right course."

IT IS THE ghost of Hitler that continues to ride the world. Whereas the vast Communist worldwide apparatus is a fact, visible to the eye and ear, the revival of Nazism is not evident except perhaps to a degree in West Germany; yet Hitler left so horrifying a memory of inhuman brutality behind him that the mere thought of the return of the Nazi sends shivers down the spines of millions of people.

This has undoubtedly become the greatest advantage to Communist operatives throughout the world, particularly in the United States. The fear of the emergence of an American Hitler is real, particularly as the disclosure of Communist espionage in this country stimulates a mass emotionalism, which while it has not yet expressed itself in any positive manner, exists nevertheless.

The genuine fear of Joe McCarthy is that his unquestioned ability to dramatize the anti-Communist issue might throw him into the role of a mobilizer of the anti-Communist forces into a pro-McCarthy political party which could give him, at least in some stages, the role of a Hitler.

HERBERT BROWNELL JR., when he accuses McCarthy of seeking to establish a one-man government by Congressional committee authority over executive agencies is, in my opinion, seeking to arouse a national resistance to McCarthy as an incipient Hitler.

McCarthy and his friends have recognized this trend for a year. They have been particularly conscious that certain organizations in New York have finally reached the conclusion that they cannot risk McCarthy becoming so great a figure that he could not be handled, at some future date, by ordinary political processes.

McCarthy has not been accused, in public, of being an anti-Semite because such a charge is so untrue as to be readily disproven, particularly by the many Jews associated with McCarthy. But the secretive smear campaign to this effect is constant and general and is widely believed.

AND IT MUST be said that this campaign represents neither fear of nor objection to Joe McCarthy; it is the ghost of Hitler that rides the times. It is fear of Hitler; it is the memory of Hitler.

The danger in this is that it works favorably to Communists. They keep the concept of Hitlerism alive; they identify every anti-Communist with this concept. Martin Dies was called a Fascist; Joe McCarthy is being identified as a prospective Hitler. It is a pattern that is world-wide. Chiang Kai-shek, for instance, is being described to the world as a dictator.

Until the death of Stalin, the United States was allied to that dictator for many years. A distinction could be made between a good dictator and a bad one; Stalin was a good dictator worthy of our aid; Franco was an evil dictator worthy of our excoriation.

SINCE THE death of Stalin, all dictators are described as evil, and to smear a man all that need be said against him is that he aspires to be a Hitler. At that point, he is supposed to drop dead politically.

Why do we play into the hands of the Communists? The answer is simple. They know how to say what we want to believe. They make a pattern of our fears and they use that pattern to our disadvantage. Both the Otto John case and the McCarthy situation need to be viewed from this standpoint.

Pound Foolish

By Victor Riesel

ROME

One of the stories which burns your insides as it is documented in European capital after capital, is the appalling disclosure that hundreds of millions of American dollars spent on U.S. military orders have been bolstering our political enemies abroad.

RIESEL

We have spent nearly a billion dollars in those plants across Europe whose workers are the very mainstay of political parties which want to destroy us.

At the same time we could have placed our orders in factories and installations employing union workers who jeopardize their skills because they are pro-U.S. and anti-Communist.

There is, for example, a port in Tuscany called Livorno. It's the site of one of our biggest naval bases. Through this port goes vital equipment, secret weapons and telltale shipments to southern Europe and all of Italy

A detailed knowledge of the traffic through Livorno is the equivalent of having a desk inside the Pentagon. Yet, our military men have entracted with the worst Communist longshoremen's union elements to unload and handle our supply and troop ships.

POLITICALLY HONEST Italian labor leaders went to the U.S. military. They said there were other fine ports in Italy's west coast —ports in which they, our friends, could supply efficient, loyal and pro-American longshoremen.

Our military said no.

That's it. Just no. And we continued to deal with unions controlled by our enemies. Why would we not take an alternative port? Why would we continue to use members of enemy run unions at our main supply base? There is no answer!

This is just one case. There are others. There is a firm known as BPD, near Rome. It makes ammunition among other things. But because its future is always uncertain, it hires its people always on a three months basis.

The employes, members of a union friendly to our country, are naturally unhappy. They never know if they'll be eating regularly after 90 days.

So some Italian labor leaders, who are friends of ours, went to the U.S. embassy officials and said there was a good chance to solidify the democratic unions here. All the BPD plant owners needed was an American order for 7 million dollars worth of needed ammunition which would guarantee its continued production for several years. The working staff could then be stabilized. Our friends could then go up and down Italy saying, see, we did it.

IT WOULD HAVE been quite a victory. But our military turned down the friendly Italian labor leaders, the embassy officials and the AFL representative here.

All the military would allocate at BPD was $3,300,000. At about the same time, however, our military executives did place an 18 million dollar order with a tiny plant up near Milan — right in the Red belt. And for exactly the same kind of ammunition which could have been produced by the BPD company! Result is that the small plant near Milan is expanding and hiring hundreds of Red unionists. We lost that battle, too!

Italy is as loaded with such cases as Venice is with gondolas. In all of these instances the cynical Italian industrialist works with the anti - American unions.

The scarlet labor people go to the businessman and say in effect: "Don't worry about the American idiots, they'll place orders with you even if you deal with us — and we'll give you a better break on wages." So the industrialist signs with the enemy unions.

Some of our embassy people here — among the best we have anywhere — know this. They also know that if the U.S. could convince the Italian businessman that we frown on his dealing with Commie unions and that he'll be hit in his pocketbook he will rush to sign up members of the pro - U.S. labor federation here, the CISL, which now has a million members and is growing.

SO OUR EMBASSY specialists, some time back, asked the Pentagon people to cancel a contract or two of the hundreds we placed in Communist run plants here over a year ago. It would have happened, too. That would have been enough to frighten the cynical industrialists here.

But the Pentagon lawyers put their great heads together. They said — NO.

Because cancellation of these contracts cost us money. Maybe a couple of million dollars in damages if the U.S. was sued.

So to save as little as 2 million dollars out of hundreds of millions, we permit our own labor friends here to go down the big drain—and continue to support those who campaign and vote against us, including the very men I've seen rioting in the Italian Parliament to stop pro-American speeches.

We've spent millions of dollars in a dozen missions trying to win labor friends. Yet we bolster the enemy and refuse to help the friends we've gained. Current policy adds up to the most dangerous stupidity I've yet found in our operations abroad.

Back to Work

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK

"Morning thoughts of an alley Aristotle on the start of a new week:

Monday is the limpest day in the average man's calendar. He returns to work tired-from working at play.

HAL BOYLE

We take the seven-day week for granted, sometimes when I feel like criticizing both the Lord and mankind — even an upset stomach can stir these solitary thoughts of rebellion —I often harbor thoughts about the God of the Old Testament that would hardly please him.

Yet he labored to create the world in six days and rested from his vast efforts on the seventh day. That created the tradition of the seven-day week. The modern effort in most industris has been to try to get the working job done in five days.

BUT SUPPOSE the Lord had labored 99 days in a row to perfect our vineyard and rested on the 100th day. Could human beings have accepted this pattern of a 100-day week? Certainly not today. So maybe one Monday every seven days isn't as bad as it sometimes seems.

We claimed we are made in the image of God, but there are no quarrels in a Christian heaven. More often we imitate in our daily lives the old Greek and Roman gods, who squabbled among themselves in petty rivalries so much that today they would feel as much at home in Times Square as they did on Mount Olympus.

The victory of Christianity over the centuries is that it reflects the ordinary man's craving to revere something more substantial, and less jealous, than he knows himself to be.

PEACE has been the mouth-spoken dream of every generation of mankind under the sun. Yet the simplest way to create world unity would be an announcement that invaders from another planet had landed on earth.

The sad fact of so-called civilization as we have known it is that dire necessity, a man's urgent loneliness and dependence on the frightened fellow who must protect his flank, has knitted firmer friends in danger than can all the pleading platitudes of peace.

It remains to be established whether man, for all his pious cries for peace, can endure it very long. His predatory omnivorous appetite, his relentless quest for change, his reach for power beyond his grasp, have made him the animal of the animals, the predator of predators, and reduced his religiousness to a mockery. Even the mosquito is more honest. It doesn't pretend to pray. It preys.

WAR IS A LONG boredom for the soldier, and has always been through history. The moments of danger are usually few, frightening, and fatal only in those accidents and harsh circumstances of duty incidental to a soldier's task. Sometimes there are few or no casualties; on occasion the whole outfit is a casualty.

But war in the industrial 20th century has made the civilian, patriotic and willing as he is, get a feeling of war importance. On his days off he volunteers to forget his regular job and work in a factory to help build a bomber his son may fly, or spot check a new gun his boy may have to fire.

That seems to me to be a real danger — the civilian's excitement and feeling of significance when war is on. He is sometimes overborne andswept away by it, and abandons the standards that make him a nice home guy. The war inflates him and his opinion of himself; he—and many girls, too—in their minds actually hate to see a war close. It will send them back to a dull routine.

But the invention of the atom bomb and the hydrogen bomb makes the civilian a potential target. Naturally this reduces his enthusiasm and gives him almost an infantry soldier's weary worry about how to stay alive and influence enemies.

Who can make people forget the glamor and magic of war—the feeling of importance war often brings?

Who can make them feel peace-important?

UPPER SANDUSKY — The Upper Sandusky Lions Club and local Boy Scout troops will sponsor a "Light for Sight" project in October. Members will canvass the community selling light bulbs by the package. Proceeds of the sale will be placed in the "sight fund."

DOWN AND OUT. Capt. Edward G. Sperry, USAF, is ejected downward out of a B-47 jet bomber traveling at 500 miles an hour at an altitude of 10,000 feet in a test of a new safety device. The method is fully automatic from the time the pilot pulls a ring which fires the seat out of the plane. Then a special explosive device separates the jumper from the seat and opens his parachute.

Task Force To Study Government Real Estate

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Hoover Commission is going to find out whether, in its view, the government owns too much real estate.

A task force, named last night, also will try to determine whether the government is paying too much for property, and whether it makes efficient use of what it does own.

John R. Lotz of New York City heads the task force.

Holding Own

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Department of Labor says office workers are more than holding their own against "everything from automatic files to automatic thinkers."

Since 1940, the number of office workers has increased 64 per cent, the department says. As of last April, nearly eight million men and women were engaged in clerical work.

Crawford Tax Revision Board Grants $63,600 in Reductions

BUCYRUS—The Crawford County Board of Tax Revision, composed of Commissioner Vance Hoover, Treasurer Harry T. Jackson and Auditor Naomi Haines, has granted reductions in real estate tax valuations, totaling $63,600, it was announced here today.

The board granted reductions in nine of 11 requests in which a total of $189,262 in reductions had been sought.

The board unanimously rejected an application by the Perfection Steel Body Co., Galion, of $92,032 on its 1953 tax duplicate valuation and $79,532 on its 1953 valuation. Board members said the requested 1952 reduction was rejected because it was filed too late and the 1953 reduction request was turned down because the firm had been paying less tha nits rightful valuation figure because a former county auditor, Frederick Klein, had not placed a sufficient figure on the tax duplicate. The Galion firm, along with other industrial firms in the county, was granted a blanket reduction several years ago, it was pointed out.

The board reduced the Cobey Corp. valuation by $8,410 because of a building in Bucyrus totally destroyed by fire. It reduced $17,770 from the tax bill of the National Lime and Stone Co. quarry in Holmes Township. The company had asked $17,870

Mrs. Mary Reid Michael, wife of Walter J. Michael, Bucyrus industrialist and Pickwick Racing Farms owner, was granted a reduction of $3,750 on buildings at the Pickwick Stud Farm in Sandusky Township.

The Galion Theater was granted $10,000 of a requested $26,620 reduction and a $2,000 cut was granted the board of directors of Wittenberg College at Springfield, O. It had sought reductions, totaling $8,790, on two Galion lots owned by the college.

Howard Reeter's request for a $2,410 slash on his Galion property was cut down to $1,200 and Clyde H. Smith, a Bucyrus resident formerly living in Galion, had his request for a $230 reduction on property in Galion rejected. James E. Huggins, Bucyrus automobile dealer, was granted a $16,720 reduction on property in Bucyrus. He requested a reduction of $20,000. Dr. and Mrs. Louis Coverman, Bucyrus, were granted a cut of $2,700 on three lots in Bucyrus. They had asked a $5,200 cut.

Catcalls Replace Clubs In Big German Walkout

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP) — Oaths and catcalls replaced fists and clubs today as Bavaria's widespread metal workers' strike went into its second week.

Pickets jeered nonstrikers as they filed into Bavaria's big metal factories, but there was no repetition of last week's body rioting in which dozens were injured.

The new atmosphere was attributed to union and management appeals to end the violence.

More than a third of Australian people live in Sydney and Melbourne.

Girl Wanted a Lion, Now Has Group of Four

HERSCHER, Ill — A five-foot three-inch blonde adopted a nine-foot red beige lion and trained him to eat an ice cream cone from her hand just because she 'always wanted an African lion"

But Bobbyetta Porter, 29 didn't stop there This summer she contracted to board three circus lions in the family barn here

Her lion-boarding actually started when friends abandoned unwanted puppies and kittens on the Porter doorstep

"I got the kittens first now it's the big cats" she explained

Bobbyetta's pet, Tex a 300-pound five-year-old she raised from a cub, lives in a pine-paneled cage built in the middle of the Porter living room The handsome creature with his long black and gold mane, obeys voice command

Bobbyetta who lives on the farm with her brother Bill 31 and her mother, Mrs Pearl Porter said Tex is a little like a child and at times like an old lady

'He roars when one of the family leaves the house without him and refuses to go to sleep at night until the whole family is in" she said

Early this summer Bobbyetta agreed to care for three more lions—all from a circus and needing a place to stay between shows

"Just for the fun of it" she said, "I practiced putting the visiting lions, Tyrone, Prince, and Sister, through their act I 'don t want to be a performer, but I'm always interested in knowing more about lions"

She needed a rod and whip to command the visitors Although Tex will eat hamburger daintily off a fork, the boarders gobbled up their food while their new trainer stood at a respectful distance

Bobbyetta can walk into Tex's cage as if it were another room in the house But she had to learn not to turn her back on her new charges

Tex gets up with the family at 7 a m and is given a bath and a mane-combing every day His food—six pounds of meat and a quart of milk per day—is served with a napkin

"He's so tidy, he won't eat it any other way," she explained

Organizational Session Set by Charter Group

More than 100 persons have been invited to attend on organizational meeting of a citizens committee to promote the proposed city charter for Marion The meeting will be held at 8 p m tonight in Room 201 of the YMCA

Last week a kickoff meeting was held under the auspices of the charter commission, which recently drafted a charter for Marion

At that meeting, 17 persons attending indicated a willingness to work for the passage of the charter in the November elections

Those 17, plus about 80 others whose names were suggested at the meeting were contacted during the week by Mrs Helen Axe, president of the League of Women Voters, and invited to tonight s meeting

Tribe Rests After Beating Orioles in Doubleheader

Garcia and Houtteman Win; Doby, Avila Hit Home Runs

CLEVELAND (AP) — Cleveland's pennant nudging Indians relaxed today after working through a Sunday doubleheader in which the humidity imposed more of a strain than the Baltimore Orioles

The Tribe let the hometown crowd see 5-2 and 3-1 contests that climaxed a quartet of triumphs in the weekend series against Baltimore and tightened their grip on first place to three games over the New York Yankees

The nightcap was the Indians sixth straight win and 15th of the season against the Orioles who have yet to cop a game in Cleveland Stadium

Predecessors of the Orioles, the St Louis Browns, lost all 11 games here last season, and did not win in the stadium since Aug 13 1952 The Indians have won 27 in a row over the two teams

With 17 more home games scheduled, the Indians have a chance to set a new major league record for the most homestead triumphs during an entire season

The mark was set by the Yankees in 1932, when the New Yorkers racked up 62 victories in Yankee Stadium The Tribe has delighted Cleveland crowds 46 times so far

Art Houtteman pitched yesterday s opener, notching his 12th victory against half as many losses while yielding six hits in the six innings he pitched Ray Narleski hurling the last three, gave up two hits

The series finale was Mike Garcia s 15th victory against five losses In eight innings, Garcia allowed six hits, and reliefer Don Mossi gave up none in the ninth

Larry Doby's three-run homer in the sixth frame of the opener provided all the runs the Tribe needed, Cracking his 27th of the season, Doby drove in Dale Mitchell and Al Smith, who had both singled

In the top half of the frame, Baltimore gained two runs off Houtteman on a walk by Bob Young a double by Vern Stephens, a walk by Clint Courtney and a single by Jim Fridley.

Al Rosen's single added two more Indian runs in the eighth, scoring Bob Avila who had been hit by a pitched ball, and Doby, who had singled

In the nightcap, Avila started Cleveland scoring in the fourth with his 12th homer of the season

A double by Sam Dente and a single by Garcia produced another run in the fifth A single by Jim Hegan and a two-bagger by Avila added the Indians' final run in the seventh

Baltimore's sole nightcap run came in the eighth on Cal Abrams' second homer of the season

Tomorrow night the Indians open a four-game series against Detroit, with Bob Lemon seeking his eighth straight victory and 17th of the season.

Cincy Loses Hitting Duel To St. Louis

CINCINNATI (AP)—Gus Bell was back in hitting stride today

The Cincinnati Redleg centerfielder entered yesterday's game with the St Louis Cardinals without a hit in his last 19 trips to the plate He regained his eye and confidence, slugging out two singles and a home run in five at bats

But his power and the 13 other Red hits were not enough to overcome the woefully weak Red pitching The Cardinals took the 3 hour and 11 minute contest 14-12

Bell s circuit clout in the ninth inning was followed by Ted Kluszewski's and Jim Greengrass' homers The three-in a-row parade is an old National League record tied by many teams It was No 16 of the season for Gus No 35 for Klu and No 22 for Greengrass This powerful trio has accounted for 73 of the Reds 117 round-trippers

Art Fowler the 31-year old rookie righthander started the game for the Reds He walked the first two men and only through a great backhanded stop by Johnny Temple did the Reds prevent scoring in the initial frame He gave up two more walks in the second

In the third, a single by Red Schoendienst and a homer by Stan (The Man) Musial gave the Cards two runs

Meanwhile the Reds built up a 8-2 lead Three runs were tallied in the first inning on four singles Five runs scored in the third on an error, Roy McMillan s triple a hit batsman a single and Johnny Temple s three-run double

The lead did not last long The Cards produced seven runs in the fourth on six hits and a walk off Fowler and Howie Judson Even winning pitcher Ellis Deal doubled in two runs

Harry Perkowski replaced Judson in the fifth after Judson walked one man and hit Deal The Cards got to Perkowski for two runs in the sixth and one in the seventh

Jackie Collum was the only one of the five Red pitchers who had any semblance of control He was yanked for a pinchhitter Joe Nuxhall pitched the last inning, giving up the two winning runs on a walk, fielder's choice and an error, a sacrifice, Schoendienst's single and a ground out

The Cardinal pitching also left much to be desired Vic Raschi was on the mound for the first inning Gerry Staley was knocked out of the box in the third Deal pitched good ball from the third until the ninth

Joe Presko replaced Deal Temple promptly walked and Wally Post singled Alpha Brazle then replaced Presko Andy Seminick singled home one run but then Bob Borkowski hit into a game-ending doubleplay

Toski's Golf Win Valued At $100,000

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN

CHICAGO (AP) — On a course where par meant nothing Bob Toski used one yesterday to win the equivalent of $100 000

His final round of 72 — put together the weirdest fashion in tournament history—gave him the "World" title at Tam O'Shanter and $50,000 in cash plus an exhibition contract worth just as much

The 127-pounder, at 27 the youngest Tam winner, settled for a 72 hole score of 274 This was 14 strokes under par with brilliant rounds of 67-65-70 and the finale of par 72

By one stroke he beat out Earl Stewart Jr, the money hungry 54 hole leader from Dallas who blew to a closing 74 and Jack Burke Jr also a Texan who did the last 18 in 69 Each of the runners up who locked with 275 collected $7 500 as shares of a $150 000 purse distribution

The wiry Toski, registering from Livingston, N J never will forget that closing 72 as long as he lives

He started out the last round with birdies on four of the first five holes Then suddenly he began to look like you and me The roof fell in with a triple bogey 7

He parted the next three for a 35 against standard 36 for the front nine

At this point — 63 holes — he totaled 237, Stewart 23b and Burke, 240 with a front nine of 34

After salvaging a par 5 on the long 64th from a trap Toski bogied four holes in a row by wandering into sand and missing short putts

At this time — 68 holes — he had used up 261 strokes in all while Burke and Stewart were deadlocked at 258

While Stewart went for a birdie 4 on the 69th Burke drove out of bounds and took a 6 Toski hit a perfect drive stuck a No 4 wood 12 feet from the cup and holed the putt for an eagle 3 This tied him with Burke at 264 while Stewart jockeyed ahead with 262

On the 215-yard 70th Stewart overshot the green stubbed a chip shot and finally took a 5 Burke and Toski parred in 3s

Stewart, who was behind the other two, parred the 71st and also took a 4 on the 72nd after failing to sink a 13-foot putt for a birdie 3 and took 275

Burke and Toski each took 4 on the 71st

On the final hole Burke parred with 4 two-putting from 20 feet Toski planted his approach eight feet from the pin He rammed in the putt for a birdie 3 — and it was all over

Lloyd Mangrum took fourth place with 277 and Walter Burkemo, fifth with 278

Lead by Half-Game

Giants Lose Third Straight; Braves Win Streak at Nine

By JACK HAND
AP Sports Writer

Brooklyn's glee over dumping 'them Giants three in a row is tempered by the knowledge that giddy Milwaukee on a nine-game spree shows no signs of running out of firewater

The Giants lead once a bulging seven games now measures only half a game over the Dodgers The Braves are 3½ games behind.

If Brooklyn beats the Phillies tonight in the only game scheduled they'll trail New York by only .002

Brooklyn bumped off New York yesterday 9-4 for a sweep of their three game series while Milwaukee squeaked past Chicago 2 1

St Louis barely survived 14-12 over Cincinnati when Gus Bell Ted Kluszewski and Jim Greengrass hit successive homers in the ninth inning Pittsburgh won its fourth straight 9-6 its longest streak of the year at Philadelphia and tied to tie the second game 6 6 in the eighth when the curfew forced play to be suspended

Cleveland moved three full games in front of New York in the American League race The Indians ran their winning streak to six by downing Baltimore 5-2 and 3-1

The Yanks scored eight in the first inning on the way to a 14 9 decision over Boston their seventh straight Chicago was practically eliminated from the pennant race by losing twice to Detroit 2 1 and 8-7, dropping 9½ games behind Cleveland Johnny Schmitz pitched Washington to a 4-1 victory over Philadelphia

Billy Loes pitching was a most important factor in Brooklyn s success against New York The young right-hander calmly set down the Giants with seven hits for his sixth straight triumph After Jim Hearn s wildness presented the Brooks with three gift runs in the second the sluggers took over Duke Snider and Gil Hodges homered and Jackie Robinson contributed two doubles Willie Mays hit No 37 — his first since July 28 — and Ray Katt, Al Dark and Hank Thompson also hit home runs for New York

Gene Conley the Braves' lanky rookie won his 12th with a seven-hitter that included six infield hits Joe Adcock's double and Johnny Logan s single in the fourth provided the winner after Milwaukee scored an unearned run on Vern Morgan's wild throw in the third

The homers by Bell, Kluszewski and Greengrass tied a record held by many clubs but couldn t save Cincinnati from defeat Joe Cunningham's homer with two on and Stan Musial's 31st helped the Cards win a wild one

The Pirates won the opener in Philadelphia with the help of Frank Thomas' homer The second game was played under protest

Manager Fred Haney claimed Willie Jones threw his glove at a Bob Skinner line drive single in the seventh A wild pitch by Steve Ridzik allowed the Pirates to tie the score

Larry Doby and Bobby Avila slammed homers in Cleveland s sweep over Baltimore Doby hit No 27 with two on in the sixth inning of the first game after Baltimore scored twice on winner Art Houtteman Avila's 12th homer got the Indians off on top in the second game won by Mike Garcia over Lou Kretlow

Rookie Bob Grim won his 14th for the Yanks although Boston made it a little uncomfortable after hitting at one stage 11 0 Art Schallock and Tom Morgan finally subdued the rallying Red Sox Harry Agganis homered for the Sox Mickey Mantle smashed No 26 for the Yanks

Steve Gromek's four-hitter got Detroit off to a good start against Chicago and the Tigers then routed Virgil Trucks in the second game for his worst beating of the season

Jim Busby knocked in three of Washington's four runs with a pair of singles off loser Johnny Gray while Schmitz scattered seven hits

Now that father has finally read "The Caine Mutiny" the kids have had to stop calling him Captain Queeg.

Alston Changes Beverages

Dodgers Three Victories Have Effect on Manager

BROOKLYN (AP) — The Brooklyn Dodgers had just whipped the Giants for the third straight time New York's once awesome seven-game margin had been slashed to a thin half game. Dodger Manager Walter Alston was drinking beer when a reporter walked into his clubhouse office. The reporter asked how he felt

"Good," was Alston's laconic reply.

What did he think of the pennant race now?

"There are still 39 games to go," he said

What about the Giants?

"They're still in first place," he said

How about those Braves, winning 20 out of 22 games?

"The Braves are hot," he said

Did he regard the Braves as more dangerous to the Dodgers' pennant chances than the Giants?

"They're both good clubs," he said

Wasn't it true that this was the best position the Dodgers had been in all season?

"We were in first place early this season," Alston said seriously, his face not betraying a single emotion

What did he think was the most significant thing about the Dodgers' sweep of the Giants? Was it the fine pitching by Carl Erskine, Jim Hughes and Billy Loes? Was it the home run slugging of Duke Snider, Gil Hodges and Carl Furillo? Was it the clutch hitting of Jackie Robinson or was it the tight defense put up by the Dodger infield especially Pee Wee Reese?

"I'd say it was a combination of all those things," Alston said

The silence hung heavy while the frustrated reporter probed his mind for another question Finally he asked

"Now come, Smokey, don't these three very vital victories have any effect on you at all?"

"Well," answered Alston, "you notice I'm drinking beer This is the first time this season I've had beer after a game. I'm a soda pop man myself"

Radio and Television

By JOHN CROSBY

How Many Eyes and Ears Have You?

J. CROSBY

I once knew a baseball fan who used to float about a swimming pool, listening to three radios. It's not easy. One would be tuned to the Yankees, another to the Dodgers and the third to the Giants. Sometime the Giants were playing the Dodgers. Such afternoons he considered relatively empty. Only two baseball games at a time. Hardly enough to keep a man's mind free from worrying about the doctor's bill.

I bring it all up because I have a pseudo-scientific interest in multiple attention. I consider it fairly new and something which has attracted not nearly enough attention from the other pseudo-scientists. Mankind has lost a lot of skills through the corruption of civilization. We can no longer smell like a bird-dog or hear like a gazelle.

BUT, BY GEORGE, we've picked up some skills on the way, too. I'd like to see any gazelle pay attention to three ball games at once without going out of his mind. I can't do it, either, come to think of it, and neither can this man's wife. But then, we are throwbacks to an earlier, simpler way of life when simple attention to one comic strip at a time was considered all that a mortal brain could bear.

But not any more. Not any more. The man listening to three ball games at once shows the shape of things to come. He can — and will —tell you at any time who is on second in three different ball parks and how he got there. With appropriate side remarks on the quality of pitching and the density of thought on the part of each manager.

This is not only a feat of multiple attention — keeping three ball games in separate compartments of the brain—but also in multiple emotion. As it so happens this man loathes all three New York teams —Yankees, Dodgers and Giants— with about equal intensity and prays for the defeat of each with great fervor. Still, even that has to be done separately.

If members of all three home teams were to whack home runs simultaneously, he would feel three separate and distinct fits of exasperation rather than one collective fit of it.

IN OTHER WORDS, this sort of multiple listenership requires a fragmentation of the emotions as well as the intellect. It ain't easy. Still, that's what is required of modern man. Back in grandfather's day, a guy would go to a ball game and have all he could do to keep his eye on the batter and make some reasonably intelligent remarks about his stance. Now he's got to keep an eye on the physical deterioration of the pitcher, check to see how the outfields playing the batter and keep an ear glued to his portable radio to find out what the Giants are up to at the Polo Grounds.

Grandfather could not possibly have managed this and I'm not sure I can either. By strenuous application I have succeeded in learning how to switch back and forth from one ball game to another keeping a pretty good grasp on the scores and potentialities of both of them. But switching back and forth to your real hard-bitten simultaneous listener — especially to one who can listen to three ball games at once — is just kid stuff. Maybe next year.

Back when I was a kid, radio was just emerging from the crystal set stage and the school boys had to learn how to do their Latin lessons while listening to the Cliquot Club Eskimos. It seemed hard at the time but it's nothing to what is required of your modern school boy.

I KNOW A GIRL who last winter used to study her French irregular verbs while simultaneously watching the killer creep up on Geraldine Fitzgerald on Philco Playhouse. As a matter of fact, she wound up the year with not very good grades but the fact that she knew any French at all is one of the wonders of the modern world.

This question of the division of attention — of paying heed to three or four things at once — I was discussing the other day with a friend of mine who claims that the thing is just beginning.

"You mark my word," he said, "the time will come when your average husband will be able to read the morning paper, watch Dave Garroway on 'Today,' eat his breakfast and have a nice lively quarrel with his wife about the household bills — without missing out on any one of them."

Only Hubcap Is Saved After Car Rolls Off Cliff

LOS ANGELES (AP)—"I'll bring back anything that's salvageable," a forest ranger promised Donald L. Columdan after Columdan's new 1954 pickup truck slipped from a jack and rolled over a precipice.

Some time later the ranger climbed back out of the canyon to where Columdan was waiting on Angeles Crest Highway. The truck had rolled 1,500 feet down, he said, handing Columdan one hub cap, badly battered.

Hostess Guides 37 To Safety as Plane Crashes in Flames

BLACKBUSHE AIRPORT, England (AP) — A calm Irish hostess held the door of her burning airliner open here yesterday as all 37 Britons aboard filed out to safety. A few minutes later all but the tail section of the plane burned.

The chartered Viking airliner, belonging to Airwork, Ltd., crash-landed after one engine failed following takeoff. A wing and an engine snapped off as the aircraft belly-landed short of the runway and caught fire.

Nine passengers were taken to a hospital at nearby Oxford for observation.

The hostess, Beryl Rothwell, discounted her own role in the crash, paying tribute instead to the passengers. "They behaved as cooly as though an air crash were an every-day incident," she said.

Americans spent 67 billion dollars for food in 1953.

Detroiters Have Second Set of Twins in 3 Years

DETROIT (AP) — Mrs. Donald Maskill, 28, yesterday gave birth to twins, her second set in three years.

The Maskills now have six children in five years of marriage.

The father, a parts buyer and seller for Vickers Inc., said he was glad he had bought an eight-room house three months ago.

130-Pound Man Lifts Car Off His Son's Leg

HARMONY, R. I. (AP)—William R. Backman Sr. weighs only 130 pounds but he lifted a 3,300-pound auto off his young son's leg yesterday.

Backman said he was backing his car out of a picnic area when he felt a bump. He got out of the car and saw one wheel resting on his 4-year-old son's leg.

The son was pulled clear while Backman lifted the car.

The leg was only bruised.

After Martin and Hammons, shot in the left arm, were forced from the car, Mrs. Martin told County Judge Virgil P. Hays the man drove into some woods with her and her 3-year-old daughter. The child was not harmed.

Police Beaten; Series Tied at One Tilt Each

The three-game series for the city Teen League championship was all tied up today following the Marion Indians' 10-inning victory over the Fraternal Order of Police Saturday night at Lincoln Park.

The Indians downed the FOP squad, 3-1, to deadlock the best two-out-of-three game series at 1-1. The FOP nine had beaten the Indians, 6-3, in the series opener.

Harold Jones hurled the Indians to victory on a three-hitter as his mates provided him with the winning margin—two runs— in the tenth frame.

Jones fanned 22 FOP batters while walking nine. Butch Simpson went the distance for the losers, allowing only one hit. He struck out 16 while walking 13.

The FOP nine took the lead on a tally in the third but the Indians came back to tie it up at 1-1 in the fourth. Bob Middleton collected the lone Indian hit while Simpson, Marlo Barrett and Kenny Ellwood banged out the FOP safeties.

Louisville Wins 2 Association Games

A couple of fine pitching performances by George Susce and Ben Flowers earned a doubleheader victory for Louisville Sunday as the Colonels tightened their grasp on second place in the American Association.

Susce turned in a seven-hitter as the Colonels beat St. Paul 3-2 in Sunday's opener and Flowers went 13 innings allowing just four hits, as the Colonels won the nightcap, 2-1.

In other Association activity Sunday:

Last place Charleston beat the league-leading Indianapolis Indians 5-2 on the four-hit pitching of southpaw Bill Henry.

Minneapolis, the third place club, beat Toledo 15-3 with lefty Jim Constable going the route for the Millers on a nine-hit yield, fanning five and walking only one.

Kansas City and Columbus split a doubleheader. Herb Moford lost the first game for Columbus as a starter, 9-3, then came back in a relief assignment to win the finale 3-2. Moford also contributed a key single as the Birds pulled the nightcap out of the fire with runs in each of the last two innings.

Marion's Bill Krohmer Takes Feature Race at Speed Bowl

Bill Krohmer of Marion captured the feature event at the Marion Speed Bowl Sunday night.

The race was marked by numerous spills. Chet Johnson of Radnor spun out at the beginning of the feature but was able to come back. On the eighth lap he and Bucyrus' Bob Harris became tangled up, Johnson going over the bank and Harris rolling over, flying up in the air and coming down on top of Charles Evans of Forest.

None of the drivers was injured but all were out of action for the rest of the evening. Carl Grover of Tiffin followed Krohmer across the finish line with Emerson Dyer of Forest coming in third and Charles Wilcox of Richwood fourth.

Krohmer also drove to victory in the first race with Don Stevens of Marion second and Johnson third. Dick Woodall of Bucyrus outraced the field in the second event with Johnson second and Walt Hamilton of Richwood third. Harlan Whiteman of Tiffin was holding down second spot until he went over the bank.

Drivers in the third heat were paced by Jim Hamilton of Richwood, with Joe Erwin of Richwood second and Gene Moore of Marion third. Harris lost a third place position when he spun out on the sixth lap.

Krohmer again drove to victory in the winners' handicap, with Dick Grice of Marion second and Johnson third. Krohmer and Grice got tangled up as they crossed the finish line and Grice was out of competition for the night.

Dyer drove home first in the consolation event with Evans second and Jake Knight of Marion third. Knight was winner of a special race run on the short track at the Speed Bowl. Harris came in second and Carl Heffelfinger of Upper Sandusky was third. During this race, a Tiffin driver rolled over in front of the grandstand, with Stevens becoming tangled up and stalling on the track. Nearly every driver in the race was spinning out but none of them was injured.

Next Sunday's races at the Speed Bowl will be held in the afternoon with time trials set for 1:30 p.m. and the first event scheduled at 2:30 p.m. According to a Speed Bowl spokesman, the drivers have agreed to run the first race and feature on the long track and the remainder of the events on the short oval.

Takes Third at Tiffin

Bill Krohmer picked up three thirds in stock car racing competition at the Tiffin Raceway Friday night.

He finished third in both 20-lap features and in the first heat, 10-lap race. One of the features had been left over from the previous week.

N.Y. Stock Quotations

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market climbed today with oils in the forefront. Volume was moderately heavy.

Railroads, utilities, steels and copper mining issues followed the oils to higher ground. Motors, aircrafts and chemicals were irregular while airlines and some distillers eased.

Trading started extremely fast and for several minutes the high speed ticker tape was unable to keep up with the heavy volume. But the tape soon cleared and a more selective tone prevailed into the afternoon.

Affected by a strike, Goodyear Tire was able to post a sharp increase as the company called its $5 preferred for redemption.

Gaining ground were Texas Co., Pacific Western Oil, Jersey Standard, U.S. Steel, Chrysler, Goodrich, Douglas Aircraft, American Telephone, Kennecott, Allied Chemical, Westinghouse, Remington Rand, Southern Railway and New York Central.

Somewhat lower were U.S. Rubber, Boeing, Distillers Corp., Radio Corp., Union Carbide, duPont and United Air Lines.

Olson To Face Castellani for Boxing Crown

NEW YORK (AP) — Boxing fans who go for ring science are in for a treat this Friday night when middleweight champion Carl (Bobo) Olson defends his title against Rocky Castellani in San Francisco's Cow Palace.

The two 160-pounders are among the most skillful fisticuffers in action today and among the most successful. The 26-year-old champion from San Francisco will be seeking his 16th straight win. Castellani, a 27-year old ex-Marine now living in Cleveland, has swept his last 10 scraps.

This one should be interesting because of Bobo's aggressive, buzz-saw style. The champ likes to move in and swing away. Castellani, on the other hand, prefers to have an opponent come to him and Olson certainly won't disappoint him.

Starting time for the 15-rounder is 9 p.m., EST. NBC will broadcast and telecast the show.

San Francisco and a 100-mile area around it will be blacked out of TV.

Unbeaten Frankie Ryff faces veteran Dennis Pat Brady in the 10-round lightweight main event at Brooklyn's Eastern Parkway Arena tonight.

ABC will handle the telecast at 9 p.m., EST.

In another TV 10-rounder tonight, two imports, Gerry Dreyer of South Africa and El Conscripto of Mexico City, collide at New York's St. Nicholas Arena.

Du Mont telecasts at 9 p.m., EST.

Local Man Keeps Busy At Hobbies, Adds Another

A Marion postman, Ray Romine, is a man of hobbies. Not one, but many, and it would be difficult for him or anyone else to say which is the most interesting. He writes verse, raises fancy iris, has a butterfly and moth collection and paints.

Recently he has added another — cartooning.

THE CARTOON, captioned "Out of this World," is the report of Radar, a visitor from "outer space," on what he finds world people doing and saying, especially the young folks. What he thinks about people and things is cleverly interpreted in verse by the author.

"Out of This World" appears in a church publication, "Youth," and what makes it doubly pleasant for the cartoonist, he is working with a long-time friend and former Marion resident, Herman Ahrens. Ahrens, who is the son of Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Ahrens of Evansville, Ind., former residents of Marion, is editor of "Youth," national bi-weekly pocket magazine for young people of the Evangelical and Reformed Church. His father served as pastor of Salem Evangelical and Reformed church here for about 11 years.

Radar is a tiny, pixie-like character with big ears and a long pointed nose. A real reporter, his tools are a notebook and huge pencil. Sometimes he looks surprised, and at other times sad or quizzical, but always curious. He is still very young — he joined Yough last March — but in such a short time has made some surprisingly keen observations. Just to name a few: in a subtle way he shows how failing to study cheats one out of an education; wonders if driving with one hand isn't just a bit conceited; what happens to the girl who eats too much chocolate candy; what happens to day dreamers, and many others.

Romine's desire from boyhood was to be a cartoonist and he devoted a great deal of time to drawing comic characters. But somehow he got sidetracked into writing poetry and after years of it, worked himself into the magazine field. He has been writing seriously since 1942 and has written more than 3,000 verses. Around 250 of them have been published since 1949. His themes are religous, nature, humor, limericks and children. His work has appeared in the Saturday Evening Post, New Yorker, Colliers, Better Homes and Gardens, Life and Health, Christian Science Monitor, Nature Magazine, and many other publications.

AS FOR GARDENING, he raises around 200 varities of fancy iris and some 1,500 iris seddlings each year. Greenhouse gardening is the newest addition to this hobby. His buttefly and moth collection was started in 1931 and might easily be the envy of collectors in this particular field. The Romine's new home on the Olentangy River south of Caledonia, which he likes to call "18 acres off sheer inspiration," was designed around the corner which houses this collection. He is a member of the Lepiopterists Society, an international organization of butterfly and moth collectors.

Irises are his favorite subject for painting pastels and oils. He was a student at the WPA art school conducted in Marion in 1935 and of the art classes for adults at Harding High School recently. He also took a correspondence course in cartooning at the age of 17.

A native of Hartford City, Ind., Romine lived in Galion before coming to Marion. His father is Fred Romine of 276 Chestnut St., a retired mail carrier. He followed in his father's footsteps by becoming a mail carrier, and until his illness last March, carried on the Vernon Heights route since 1938. He is married and has one daughter, Sandy Jean. His brother is Paris Romine, a city policeman.

RAY ROMINE
New Cartoonist

—:—

THE PUBLISHER of Youth was graduated from Harding High School in 1942, was co-editor of the Harding Herald, and with Romine and others, published the Salem Crusader for Salem Church here. He entered the Army in March of 1943 and saw action in the European theater. He received his bachelor of arts degree from Heidelberg College in 1949. He took additional study at the University of Missouri School of Journalism where he received his degree in 1950. With his wife, the former Miss Lorene Kellermeyer and their daughter, Deborah Kay, he lives in Lansdale, Pa. and works in Philadelphia.

He has been editor of Youth for the past four years and also writes and edits other work in the youth field. He will be in Evanston, Ill, through Aug. 31, where he will represent all Protestant youth editors at the second assembly of the World Council of Churches, at the request of the United Christian Youth Movement of the National Council of Churches in the United States.

Galion School Head Choice Is Definite

GALION — Dwight L. Musselman definitely will be Galion's new superintendent of schools. He was released today by the board of education at Geneva, O., where he has been serving as superintendent for the last two years.

In a telephone call to Grant West, president of the Galion board of education Saturday night, Musselman said he had been assured by the Geneva board president that he will be relieved of his duties in Geneva today. It was expected that the Geneva board would have a successor chosen over the weekend.

Musselman plans to divide his time between Galion and Geneva until school opens, in helping the new superintendent at Geneva become acquianted with the schools there.

1 Dead, 2 Hurt in Indiana Motorcycle Race Crash

TERRE HAUTE, Ind (AP)—A pile-up during a motorcycle race at the Vigo County Fair yesterday killed one driver and seriously injured two others. Dead was Archie D. Weimer, 22, of Granite City, Ill. Injured were Frank R. Gayoski, 25, of Barberton, Ohio, and George Malek, 27, of Chicago. Gayoski's left leg was fractured

Clevelander Hit, Killed Helping To Push Auto

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Gerry Puszak, 27, of Cleveland, was helping push one car on Ohio 18, one-half mile west of here, late yesterday when a second car struck and killed him, the state highway patrol reported.

The patrol said Puszak was pinned between the two vehicles.

A second man helping Puszak push suffered only minor injuries, the patrol reported.

The pioneer's quest for food along the trails was as nothing to his ulcerous descendent's search for a roadside eating place that doesn't fry everything.

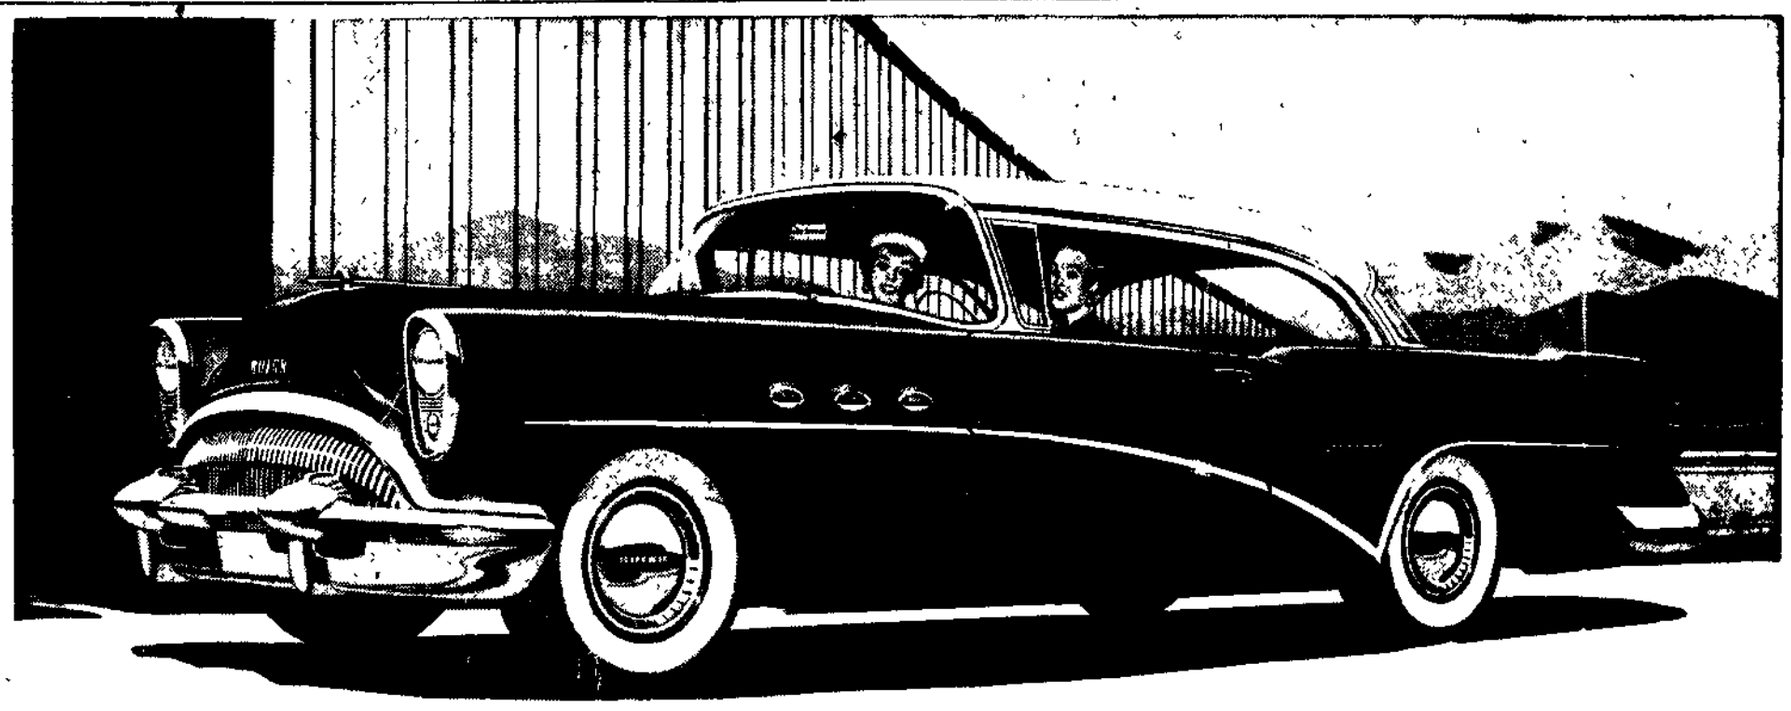
"NO RED TAPE"



Buick's biggest hit brings you a 3-way bonus

1. You get the car that's in step with tomorrow

From stem to stern, Buick today is styled a year ahead—with long, low glamor lines, with the very look of tomorrow, and with that broad panoramic windshield that many other cars won't have till 1955. Equally important, you get in Buick advanced V8 power, big room, luxurious comfort, the famed Million Dollar Ride—and all for prices that start just a few dollars above those of the so-called "low-price three." Is it any wonder, then, that Buick today is outselling all other cars in America except two of these "low-price three"?

2. You get the car that's a sure high resale value

Buicks have always had a high trade-in value. But the 1954 Buick has an extra advantage in its year-ahead styling. That means your Buick will stay well up in the style parade for years to come—will stay fresh and new-looking well into the future. So you're bound to be way ahead in actual dollars when trade-in time comes.

3. You get the car that's a [illegible]

Every month's sales figures this year have firmed this fact: Buick sales are soaring; Buick is outselling all other cars in the nation, regardless of price range, except two of the "low-price three." So with this tremendous volume, we can — and do — offer higher trade-in allowances. Come in, see and drive a new Buick—then check for yourself that our volume business really does mean a far bigger allowance for you.

Come see for yourself why—

Buick Sales are Soaring!

Bar Association Debates Place of Press in Courts

By RUSSELL LANE

CHICAGO (AP)—A thorny question, whether the rights of the defendant in a court trial are denied by press, radio and television reporting, was a discussion subect today at an American Bar Assn. meeting.

At issue was the ABA's Canon 35 of Judicial Ethics which holds that taking of photographs in the courtroom and broadcasting or televising of proceedings, "are calculated to detract from the essential dignity of the proceedings, distract the witness in giving his testimony, degrade the court, and create misconceptions with respect thereto in the mind of the public, and should not be permitted."

Lists Rights

U.S. District Judge George H. Boldt of Tacoma, Wash., told a panel audience of the ABA's section of judicial administration in one of four prepared panel addresses, the Sixth Amendment of the Constitution specifies rights "The accused shall enpoy."

"It is significant that the Constitution does not say that the public has the right to "enjoy" or even attend trials," Judge Boldt said.

Justin Miller, former Associate Justice of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia, said except for use of the Fifth Amendment, which excuses a witness from giving testimony that might incriminate him, and the defendant's refusal to testify in his own behalf, "there is no right of privacy for any participant in courtroom proceedings as concerns all matters relevant to the case."

Right to Public Trial

Noting that the Sixth Amendment does accord the accused right to "a public trial," Miller said such a trial "should be equally available to all media of communication — assuming that the proper dignity, decorum and normal activities of all participants can be maintained."

Louis Waldman, president of the Brooklyn Bar Assn. which sponsered a recent New York bar prohibition against public discussion by its members of matters on trial — and which since has become an official procedural rule in New York courts — was another panelist.

Waldman said Canon 35, in essence, "is the negation of a system of society under which trials are accompanied by mass demonstrations, where trials, particularly in criminal cases, are utilized with the aid of television, radio and other mass media of communication as political instruments."

"Such systems," said Waldman, "prevail in totalitarian, Communist Russia and in the so-called peoples' democracies."

Should Be Strengthened

Waldman said, however, that the canon should be strengthened "in the public interest." He suggested a provision "that all trials, particularly in criminal cases, be public and that all citizens, including the press, may freely attend the sittings of court."

Alexander F. Jones, executive editor of the Syracuse Herald-Journal speaking as representative of the American Society of Newspaper Editors, said the canon "ignores completely all technological advances" in radio, television and photography which "operate with little or no distraction."

Jones said that moves of the bar association canon, he expects to see a session of the United States Supreme Court televised. "It will come because it is right."

Jones said tha moves of the ABA and state bars to have the canon made "compulsory rules of court procedure" in various states "shocks me deeply."

"Opponents of the press feel," Jones said, "that if the newspapers could be shut up a jury could be selected that had no knowledge of the case at hand — or anything else, for that matter."

"What is continually overlooked," he said, "is that we live in a democracy. The people have a right to know."

Bar Association Debates Place of Press in Courts

By RUSSELL LANE

CHICAGO (AP)—A thorny question, whether the rights of the defendant in a court trial are denied by press, radio and television reporting, was a discussion subect today at an American Bar Assn. meeting.

At issue was the ABA's Canon 35 of Judicial Ethics which holds that taking of photographs in the courtroom and broadcasting or televising of proceedings, "are calculated to detract from the essential dignity of the proceedings, distract the witness in giving his testimony, degrade the court, and create misconceptions with respect thereto in the mind of the public, and should not be permitted."

Lists Rights

U.S. District Judge George H. Boldt of Tacoma, Wash., told a panel audience of the ABA's section of judicial administration in one of four prepared panel addresses, the Sixth Amendment of the Constitution specifies rights "The accused shall enjoy."

"It is significant that the Constitution does not say that the public has the right to "enjoy" or even attend trials," Judge Boldt said.

Justin Miller, former Associate Justice of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia, said except for use of the Fifth Amendment, which excuses a witness from giving testimony that might incriminate him, and the defendant's refusal to testify in his own behalf, "there is no right of privacy for any participant in courtroom proceedings as concerns all matters relevant to the case."

Right to Public Trial

Noting that the Sixth Amendment does accord the accused right to "a public trial," Miller said such a trial "should be equally available to all media of communication — assuming that the proper dignity, decorum and normal activities of all participants can be maintained."

Louis Waldman, president of the Brooklyn Bar Assn. which sponsored a recent New York bar prohibition against public discussion by its members of matters on trial — and which since has become an official procedural rule in New York courts — was another panelist.

Waldman said Canon 35, in essence, "is the negation of a system of society under which trials are accompanied by mass demonstrations, where trials, particularly in criminal cases, are utilized with the aid of television, radio and other mass media of communication as political instruments."

"Such systems," said Waldman, "prevail in totalitarian, Communist Russia and in the so-called peoples' democracies."

Should Be Strengthened

Waldman said, however, that the canon should be strengthened "in the public interest." He suggested a provision "that all trials, particularly in criminal cases, be public and that all citizens, including the press, may freely attend the sittings of court."

Alexander F. Jones, executive editor of the Syracuse Herald-Journal speaking as representative of the American Society of Newspaper Editors, said the canon "ignores completely all technological advances" in radio, television and photography which "operate with little or no distraction."

Jones said that moves of the bar association canon, he expects to see a session of the United States Supreme Court televised. "It will come because it is right."

Jones said tha moves of the ABA and state bars to have the canon made "compulsory rules of court procedure" in various states "shocks me deeply."

"Opponents of the press feel," Jones said, "that if the newspapers could be shut up a jury could be selected that had no knowledge of the case at hand — or anything else, for that matter."

"What is continually overlooked," he said, "is that we live in a democracy. The people have a right to know."

Solid Gains Made

Business Hails Congress' Tax Reform Legislation

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — Businessmen are counting up today some solid gains — along with some dashed hopes—dealt this year by a Congress widely considered to be "more business-minded" than its predecessors.

Legislation of prime interest to business lies in these fields: Taxation, government economy, defense spending, public power, atomic energy, foreign trade, housing, and the St. Lawrence Seaway.

High on the plus side from the point of view of business is the tax reform law, aimed at encouraging industrial expansion and production, and thus making jobs and swelling payrolls.

But Congress ignored industry's plea that the 52 per cent corporate income tax rate be allowed to drop to 47 per cent on schedule, and instead extended the higher rate until next April. This will take more tax money from business in the next few months than companies can save through other provisions in the tax reform measure. These cover depreciation allowances, research spending, and the carry-back of losses for tax purposes.

Hoped for Bigger Cut

Nor did exemption of dividends from individual income taxes go as far as business had first hoped. But industry feels that the token exemptions should lead to wider purchasing of corporate stocks by the citizenry.

Congress sliced some excise taxes and helped move goods involved—classed as luxuries or semi-luxuries—off store shelves, and helped consumers save on various service, recreation and entertainment charges Manufacturers are hoping for still further cuts in the next session.

Economy moves in Congress are generally applauded. But some are disappointed that economy measures still leave the federal budget unbalanced and the federal debt due to rise—with all its implications of inflation.

Private power leaders count a number of victories. Congress laid aside several public power projects to give private firms or local authorities the go-ahead signal.

Businessmen eager to get into the infant atomic power field are counting on a partial victory—not as much right to develop nuclear fission plants through private enterprise as many want, but at least a beginning despite all the built-in restrictions.

Public Housing Slowed

Congress put a brake on public housing, to the cheers of private builders. It also liberalized financing rules, and jubilant builders predict a continued home building boom, with all that means to the construction industry and financing institutions.

Cuts in defense spending and cancellations of military orders caused layoffs in many plants.

The St. Lawrence Seaway, which will open the midcontinent to ocean shipping and develop some public power, brings joy and visions of profits to many industries and a number of potential "seaports." But some existing seaports, railroads and power companies see it as one of Congress' most damaging acts.

Foreign traders aren't too happy either. Congress ditched most of the President's program for liberalizing world trade. It extended the Reciprocal Trade Act for only one year and foreign traders expect very little will be done under this act in the next year.

Congress economized a little more on foreign aid—a controversial subject. Some industrialists say U. S. money is being used abroad to build up foreign industries in competition with our own. Others contend the money sent abroad is used to buy American goods — and they can use the market.

Adding it up: Businessmen feel they fared pretty well in this session. That, of course, won't keep them—or anyone else—from asking for more in the next session.

California Boy Places First in Soap Box Race

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Plucky Dick Kemp just couldn't seem to get the grin off his freckled face long enough to talk. For a guy who hated to be just second in anything, it was a wonderful feeling to be first.

"I feel great!" he finally blurted to a reporter yesterday, and he had a perfect right. The sturdy, 14-year-old from Los Angeles had just won the 17th All-American Soap Box Derby and a $5,000, four-year college scholarship.

Carrying his lucky silver dollar and wearing a favorite, though weathered pair of red leather moccasins, Dick and his blue racer flashed down the 975.4-foot Derby Hill track in 27:80 seconds in the final heat, his slowest time of the day.

He was just an inch or so ahead of Gary Miller of Long Beach, Calif., the second-place winner, who in turn was just barely ahead of the third-place John Kirtley of Evansville, Ind.

The new champion's fastest heat, and the record for the derby, was set in the fourth of his five rounds when he finished in 27:51 seconds.

This was the third year he tried for honors in the gravity-dependent soap box competition and the first time he reached the Akron finals. In 1952 he was third in the Los Angeles derby and last year he finished second there.

His mother, Mrs. Paul Kemp, confided yesterday that Dick "just couldn't stand it to go through life just coming in second.

Dick said he spent $9.40 on the materials for his racer and took six months to build it in the family garage. So industriously had he polished the paint of his vehicle that it was worn off in several spots.

The field of 151 entries, each a champion in his own hometown, ran off the derby in about an hour and 50 minutes yesterday instead of the usual two and a half hours. Officials had feared rain would drench the contestants and 60,000 spectators at the outdoor event and speeded up the heats. No sooner was the final heat finished, than the rain started.

A fat heifer show, fat lamb show and fat steer show are senior fair highlights along with the Ohio State Hereford Show. The annual tractor pulling contest will get under way at 9 a.m. Wednesday with prizes given in each of four different weight classes.

The annual junior fair will again be highlighted by the health parade to be held at 9 a.m. Saturday and the annual style review to be held at 10 a.m. Saturday. Many special awards with trophies to be presented are planned in the junior fair.

McClarren said that 346 head of cattle plus 13 entries for the fat steer show have been received. There will be 313 head of sheep and 203 head of hogs entered in the senior fair.

SAFETY COUNCIL MEETS

MOUNT GILEAD—Ernest Hoar was elected president of the Perry Township Safety Council when they held their second meeting last week at the school in Johnsville. Ralph Reed was named vice president and Kenneth Williams was elected secretary and treasurer. The possibility of holding an economy run for children and a rodeo for safe and courteous driving were discussed and will be investigated further. Next meeting of the council has been set for Tuesday night, Aug. 24 at 8 p.m. at the school.

Staff of Teachers Complete at Carey

CAREY — Wallace E. Blake, superintendent of Carey schools, has announced that all teaching positions have been filled for the opening of school, Sept. 7. Three new teachers have been employed.

Mrs. Doris Brouse, Tiffin, has been secured as vocal music instructor in the local school and will teach in both the elementary and high schools. She attended Asbury College, Wilmore, Ky., and was graduated from Taylor University, Upland, Ind. She taught vocal music in the Hopewell-London Schools, Seneca County, during the past school year.

Lester Baum, Findlay, has been employed as commercial instructor and as an assistant in the physical education department in charge of the elementary physical education program. Baum replaces Mrs. East who resigned recently to accept a position in the Ashland city schools. He is a native of Hershey, Pa., and a graduate of Findlay College. SHe was named in Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges in 1951-52 and was all-Navy wrestling champion in 1948.

Mrs. F. D. Jackson of Carey has been added to the faculty of the Colonel Crawford School. Mrs. Jackson attended Kent State and Bowling Green Universities. She has taught in the elementary schools at Bucyrus and Tiffin.

RAISE LEGION COSTS

BUCYRUS — Members of Col. Crawford post of the American Legion will pay $6, an increase of $1, for their 1955 membership cards, Wayne Brause, post commander, announced today. Post officers said the increase resulted from a recent court decision, which ruled that grants to veterans' organizations by the state legislature were illegal. Allocations by individual posts to state headquarters have been raised to meet the loss in state funds, according to post officers.

PUT YOUR FAITH IN INSURANCE NOT STATISTICS!

Certainly the statistics were all in your favor. You could have checked the record books for 100 years and never found anything to prepare you. You had seen fairly bad windstorms . . . but nothing like this.

You and the family were out when it happened. People who were there said it was like a huge locomotive roaring out of the black sky and cutting its own track right through the heart of your neighborhood. It smashed your home—and everything in it—like cardboard under a steamroller.

You lived in Flint, Michigan or Worcester, Massachusetts or Waco, Texas last spring—but it might have been any other city that had never before seen a tornado. It just didn't seem possible—until the twister struck.

But that's what your insurance friend had said. No disaster does seem possible until it happens. And then, of course, it's too late to get insurance. An "extended coverage" endorsement attached to your fire insurance policy gives you protection against tornadoes, hurricanes, riots, falling aircraft, and many other dangers.

Pigs Knuckles Suggested by Leading Cook

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (UP)—Mrs. Herbert Werner has won about 32 blue ribbons in 25 years of fancy baking exhibits at the Wisconsin state fair. But when it comes to feeding her family she picks pork hocks and fresh vegetables as the favorite meal.

"Sure, it's nice to whip up pretty little things," she said, "but for a real honest-to-goodness treat, you can't beat pork hocks surrounded by steaming vegetables."

Pigs knuckles is another name for pork hocks.

Mrs. Werner says it takes about two hours to prepare her specialty and when it's done, the work is over — everything for a complete meal is prepared.

She takes three pork hocks of a little over one pound each sawed in two pieces cross-wise and covers them with water. She simmers them gently for 1 to 1½ hours before adding the vegetables.

Mrs. Werner uses 6 carrots, 6 potatoes, 1 small red cabbage, salt and pepper and 4 tablespoons of cider vinegar to supplement the meat.

Slice the cabbage into quarters and put it into the kettle with the other vegetables, whole, until the vegetables are done. The vinegar is added with the vegetables, along with salt and pepper "to the cook's liking," Mrs. Werner said.

She serves the hocks in the middle of a large platter, surrounded with the vegetables for a complete meal for the Werner family of five.

Sometimes Mrs. Werner adds one of her special apple pies to the meal and she always serves homebaked whole wheat bread.

For the pie crust, use 1½ cups of flour, ½ cup of refined lard, ½ teaspoon salt and approximately three tablespoons cold water. Cut the shortening into the flour and add three tablespoons of water to make a soft ball. Divide it into two parts. One is rolled for the crust and the other for the cover.

Mrs. Werner lines a nine-inch pie plate and puts in 7 to 8 uncooked diced apples. This she sprinkles with 1 cup of sugar, adds 3 tablesoons of butter, spinkles cinnamon and covers completely with the remaining dough.

She pops the pie into her electric oven at 425 degrees for 10 minutes then decreases the temperature to 350 for 40 minutes.

Mrs. Werner adds a thick slice of Wisconsin cheese on top of the pie when she serves it and puts a brimming pitcher of milk on the table.

"We all drink lots of milk," she said, "This is the dairy state, you know."

Advice Ignored

Danes Quit Active NATO Role, Leave Defense Gap

COPENHAGEN (NANA) — Denmark has virtually withdrawn from active participation in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, leaving a gap in the West's defensive wall from Western Germany to Norway on the northern flank. Military experts estimate the Danes would be overrun from the East within 48 hours.

The government decision, in defiance of advice from its own defense chiefs as well as NATO Commander Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther, to reduce the conscription period confirms the Danes as the first nation to become a passive NATO member. Simultaneously, the government this summer has cut its defense budget by $1,000,000 or 3 per cent.

WHEN PARLIAMENT meets in September the administration has been promised support in its plan to reduce the draft from 18 to 16 months from the nation's radicals. It is also certain of Communist backing.

Offers to station NATO troops or airmen in Denmark have been declined—even firmly resisted. The Danes have even opposed the preparation, at no cost to themselves, of airfields for the reception, in an emergency, of NATO help.

While the Danes have often expressed irritation that their country is described as NATO's weakest link, in reality theirs is a missing link.

Public opinion polls have shown that only about half of the Danes favor continued NATO allegiance. Although it was the members of the Social Democratic party who, when efforts to bring the Swedes into a Scandinavian defense outside NATO broke down, allied this nation to NATO, their hearts were never in it. The vast majority of their political followers would not support an active NATO policy.

While Denmark is the country which had received proportionately most U.S. defense aid, she has always spent proportionately less of her own money on defense than any other NATO member. Prime Minister Hans Hedtoft has admitted that "no social democrat aims at unreasonable expenditure or dispositions within the framework of the Atlantic pact," yet his party "maintains the incontestable right of Denmark to receive aid from her allies."

WHILE DENMARK is geographically in a position to bottle up Soviet naval forces in the Baltic, to defend the country is a matter of the greatest strategic complexity. Recognizing this, the allied supreme headquarters has told the Danes that they are only expected to hold up an aggressor for a few days until help can reach them. Denmark has merely to take the first shock of an attack.

On paper, the Danes have its 40,000 men under arms. In view of this and of the probability that reserves would never go into action since their service period until the end of last year was a mere 19 months and there have been no call-ups for retraining, it is hardly surprising that military experts believe that Denmark would be occuplied in less than 48 hours — even if attacked with only the weapons of the last war.

For the moment the greatest worry of Defense Minister Rasmus Hansen concerns the nature of the "strategic readjustments" which a NATO spokesman has warned will have to be made if Denmark insists on an even smaller and less well-trained army. The minister is fully aware that future NATO strategy regarding Denmark might well involve the holding of the Jutland Peninsula only, leaving Copenhagen and the rest of the country to fend for itself.

For more political expediency the Danish government appears prepared to run this risk.

Morrow County's Schools Will Hold Session on Sept. 7

MOUNT GILEAD — All Morrow County schools in the county system will open Tuesday, Sept. 7, for short sessions it was announced this week by County Superintendent of Schools T. A. Gantz.

Hiring of three more teachers brought the number of teaching vacancies down to 10 he said. Hired were the following:

Charles Casto, a graduate of Fairmont State College in West Virginia and a resident of Virginia, was hired as a coach and a mathematics-science teacher at Johnsville. He replaces James Ki-Meolo who resigned last spring.

Rev. Glen Peoples of Galion was hired as a seventh grade teacher in the Iberia public schools. He is a graduate of Muskingum College and has had 13 years of teaching experience. Mrs. Blanche Knachel of Mount Gilead was hired as the English teacher in the Edison School.

One new superintendent, Virgil Blanke at Iberia, has been hired since last spring.

Two teaching staffs, Edison and Johnsville, are completed at the present time.

Our Patient Neighbors

The talks between United States and Canadian officials on St. Lawrence seaway construction in Ottawa are said to be coming along nicely. Our patient neighbors can be counted on to stay that way as long as necessary to get this job done.

It is reported from Ottawa that Canada will consent to having the major section of the canal system in the Rapids section built on the American side of the river, although Canadian engineers had prepared plans for building the system on the Canadian side. And in the event of squabbling over the division of American and Canadian labor, Canada also will be cooperative.

For a generation it has worked systematically to open the Great Lakes to deep-water navigation and to utilize the water power of the St. Lawrence while the United States floundered in disagreement and confusion. It has watched railroad lobbyists, coal miners lobbyists, lobbyists from Atlantic and Gulf ports and lobbyists for the electric industry tie the issue in legislative knots in Congress.

Finally, the obstructionists ran out of knots, Canada and the Great Lakes area now are within a few years of getting what they could have had a quarter of a century ago if obstructionism had not scored a historic triumph in Congress. Somewhere along the waterway when it's finished there should be a monument to Canadian patience—erected by the United States on its own side at its own expense.

Survival Is Their Business

Since the decision by unionized Studebaker employes to accept a work rate reduction will be cited as an example of organized labor's willingness to cooperate with management, these things about it are important:

1. In a previous decision, employes have refused to accept a reduction and it was necessary to reconsider carefully what had been decided casually by a show of hands in a meeting too small to be representative of the corporation's workers.

2. It was not a decision to take a cut in take-home pay because 9,000 of the corporation's 21,000 employes have been out of work and the remainder have been working part-time. It was a decision to accept a general reduction of the highest work rates in the automobile industry—so high they made it impossible for Studebaker to maintain a competitive position in the auto market.

3. The alternative to the decision was the suspension of work at the South Bend Studebaker factory.

Thus, no other decision would have made sense. Survival of enterprise is just as much the business of unions as it is of management and is so regarded by unions that have risen above old world ideas of warfare between capital and labor. When the goose that lays the golden eggs is starved to death, there are no more golden eggs to share, just goose feathers. Studebaker workers, proud of their tradition of good labor relations and proud of their product, voted in favor of golden eggs.

Legislation by Consent

In the closing days of a congressional session there comes into play a practice that might be called legislation by consent.

When the House of Representatives and Senate pass different versions of the same bill, the two versions than are turned over to conference committees for adjustment of the differences. The adjustment may range from a splitting of differences to an entirely independent settlement, although in practice conferees are expected to follow the principle of compromise.

This becomes especially important in the closing days of a Congressional session when time is running out. The conference committee in the closing days has the ultimate responsibility for doing what senators and representatives sometimes prefer not to do for political reasons.

Thus, there has been created—for the convenience of congressmen who find it important to be on the "right side" of key issues, a device called "free conference." This means the conferees are at liberty to use their own judgment. In a "specific conference," on the other hand, they must follow the desires of their respective chambers.

Do not take it for granted during the adjournment rush of the next few days that the final versions of measures still pending in Congress will be what they appear to be. They will be what the conference committees finally decide they should be, which is a compromise that will be moderately satisfactory to everybody concerned and completely satisfactory to no one.

Target Practice

A happy philosopher says the average American is as well off as a millionaire, they both eat three meals a day, wear one shirt at a time and sleep in equally comfortable beds. The big difference is that the millionaire's wife doesn't cook the first, wash the second or make the last.

—:—

Very high-handed of the Russians, of course, to put their school children in uniforms, but at least they differ from the American shirt-and-jeans custom in that you can tell the uniforms for the boys from the uniforms for the girls.

Smith Act Best U.S. Weapon at Present

WASHINGTON

The best single weapon the government has at this time for jailing Communists for their conspiracies against the United States is the Smith Act, passed in 1940.

Under this law 81 Communist leaders have been convicted and jailed for conspiring to teach forceful overthrow of the government. More than 100 have been indicted. And the Supreme Court has upheld the constitutionality of the act.

The Communist Party is nowhere mentioned by name in the Smith Act. The convicted Communists were found guilty of violating the law as conspirators, not as Communist party members.

—:—

IF THE COMMUNIST party had been specifically named in the Smith Act the Supreme Court might have held the law unconstitutional. For example, the party, although government agencies have found it to be a Moscow tool, calls itself a political party.

The court might have decided that a law which was aimed at the party by name might therefore have infringed on the Constitution's guarantee of free speech.

The government has spent a long time, still without final positive results, trying to move against the Communists under still another law, the McCarran Internal Security Act of 1950

Under that law — the Communist party isn't mentioned by name there either — Communist party leaders and members must register with the government of their organization:

1. Is found, by the Subversive Activities Control Board (SACB) to be the agent of a foreign government, in this case Soviet Russia. The board so found it after giving the Communist party a hearing which lasted a year.

2. If the Supreme Court upholds the board's findings. When the board ruled against them, the Communists appealed to the courts. The Supreme Court is expected to give a final decision by mid-1955.

IF THE SUPREME COURT finds the McCarran Act is unconstitutional or that the board was wrong in saying Communists must register, the government will have spent five years for nothing.

If, on the other hand, the court upholds the board, what happens? Communist party leaders, although appealing to the courts, have indicated they would not register if the final decision is against them.

Suppose on the day the court ruled they must register, the Communists dissolved their party under its present name and organized another party which had the same purpose.

Would the government then have to go through the whole process all over again. Some government lawyers think that would be necessary. Others argue the FBI could go out and arrest the Communists who didn't register.

There are still penalties for not registering, once it becomes necessary, but since there are an estimated 25,000 Communists in the country the government would have its hands full jailing all of them.

Now Congress seems in a mood —the Senate voted for it but the House hasn't acted yet — to outlaw the Communist party, flatly and by name. Atty. Gen. Brownell previously expressed concern about such a move. He's chief spokesman for the Eisenhower administration's opposition to banning the party outright.

HE FEARED THAT outlawing the party might wreck all the work the government has put in so far in trying to make the Communists register under the McCarran Act.

There's a section of that act which says anyone forced to register under it does not in any way incriminate himself by registering. But if now Congress outlaws the party, Communists could argue at once and could be upheld by the courts on grounds that:

It is unconstitutional for the government to require a man give evidence against himself as he would be doing if he registered as a Communist when there is a law making it a crime to be a Communist.

It is also possible — and some government lawyers think it's a lively possibility — the Supreme Court would knock out an act outlawing the Communist party by name. Again, perhaps, on the infringement of the free speech guarantee.

The government could spend years getting a Supreme Court ruling on the outlaw act while watching its work on the McCarran Act go out the window. So outlawing the party isn't as simple as telling the Communists: "Now that we've outlawed you, go away."

AAA Blue Book

By Frank Tripp

Who remembers the Automobile Blue Book of 45 years ago? The American Automobile Association's 800-page volumes of detailed route instructions, without which it wasn't wise to motor far from home.

There were four of them, for different sections of the country. As yet there were few improved roads, no road maps, no numbered routes or dependable road signs. Just telephone poles, red barns, bridges and such to show the way.

Without such land-marks the Blue Book would have been worthless. Even so, a red barn repainted green could send a driver miles out of his way. And miles were precious when 150 of them were a spanking day's run for unpredictable cars over the dusty, rutty roads.

THE BLUE BOOK borned the back seat driver. It took two people to negotiate a tour; one to drive, one to ignore the scenery, with eyes glued to the book reading the instructions, sometimes pretty tricky.

Lets take a run this pleasant day (mid-summer 1909) over the 74.5 miles from New York up to New Haven, Conn. With luck we should make it before dark. I'll drive the Model T, you watch the book—and don't you make a mistake.

We are doing fine The first two pages got us from Columbus Circle to Mamaroneck, 21.2 miles in three hours, in spite of radiator trouble. Gee, the Lizzie drinks a lot of water; good thing we brought along that pail.

Now keep your wits; what does the book say? Watch each turn through Greenwich, Stamford, Norwalk, Westport into Bridgeport, and we'll make it easy. This is what you read, getting out of Mamaroneck:

Cross bridge over RR (25.2 m), at fork 1 m beyond, bear right, downgrade under RR (26.3 m) to end of road at S. Main St. (26.4 m). Turn left with car tracks, straight ahead to bank in fork, you are in Portchester.

These few "simple" instructions brought us 5.4 miles safely. What wonderful things, the Blue Book and the speedometer—the motorist's chart and compass.

SWELL, WE MADE New Haven in seven hours, in spite of a half hour drawbridge hold-up at the Harlem, the stop to eat our packed lunch at the Housatonic and the stop for 11-cent a gallon gas at Bridgeport. You only made one mistake, when you sent me around through Savin Rock outside New Haven.

Oh, well, it was nice along the Sound and we're in no hurry. Let's put Lizzie in the Holcomb Garage for a going over after her hard run, and spend the night at The Gaide. We'll hop over to Saybrooke tomorrow. After supper we'll study the route. Holy smoke; the robbers are going to charge $5 for our supper, lodging and breakfast — for only two of us. They sure do soak motorists.

THAT 1909 Blue Book tells strange things, as I chuckle over it today. Among the maximum speed limits: California, Massachusetts and New York, 20 m.p.h.; Maine, 15; Georgia, 10; Alabama, 8. Connecticut and New Jersey were speeders' paradise, 25 m.p.h. except. "one mile in four minutes within 200 feet of horses and animals on highways."

Sample annual car license fees California, Illinois, New York, $2; Pennsylvania and New Jersey, $3; Michigan, $1, Texas, 50 cents; Alabama, 25 cents.

"Advice on ascending hills If there is a sprag on the car it should be lowered at the foot of the hill and dragged all the way up. In the absence of a sprag, one of the party, with a small log or fence rail should walk behind the car, on the alert to block the wheels if the car stops."

Ad for the Stevens House, Lake Placid "Our new garage is equipped with electric lights, running water and a power lathe."

Cooling systems, carburetors, valve springs and tires were the chief banes of motoring. Gas stations frequently were 50 miles apart.

A popular song of the day was "Get Out and Get Under."

Resourcefulness Pays Off for Jordans

By Raymond Moley

LOS ANGELES

The primary in Idaho on Aug. 10, no doubt will attract national attention only because it marked the nomination by the Democrats of Glen Taylor, the thespian politician who served a term as United States senator and ran with Henry Wallace in 1948. But beneath the account of his return to public life is a solid story told by the detailed figures of that primary.

Those statistics show that Taylor won only because he was supported by the same solid core of malcontents that has always supported him, and that apathy generally prevailed among other Democrats.

Meanwhile, the Republican primary vote outran all expectations. So the most conservative state in the Northwest is not likely to lose that distinction in November.

The primary reminds me that the end of this year marks the retirement of one of the most substantial and attractive public figures that I have known anywhere in the West, Idaho's Len Jordan.

He cannot under the law succeed himself and has no desire to run for any other office. The President has designated him as a member of the International Joint Commission for a term of years.

JORDAN'S LIFE has been marked by many hardships, but it has compensated him with many rewards, the most important of which is his wife, Grace, who in a most remarkable way has written the epic of her husband's life and, with becoming modesty, her own.

The story of their life together, "Home Below Hell's Canyon," published this year, is not only an absorbing personal narrative of venturesome living, but it is a lesson for all who ask whether Americans have lost the habit of living without the crutch of government help.

The Jordans, in the dark months of 1933, moved with their three children into the indescribably rugged and almost inaccessible country along the Snake River below the deepest scar on the North American continent, Hell's Canyon.

It was a country as demanding, adverse, and yet as rewarding as any that has been settled since the Pilgrims landed. The Jordans were visited only occasionally by a mail boat that navigated the unruly Snake River with what few supplies they were able to afford from the world outside.

MRS. JORDAN tells the heartwarming story of their "determined frugality" and of how when their first Christmas in the new home arrived they achieved with great resourcefulness a happy occasion for their children

She gets across with rare literary talent and utter lack of forced dramatics or self pity the excitement and tribulations of their existence

While Len labored through the years, managing their herds of sheep, improving the stock, planning for the shearing, and contriving ways of getting the product to market, Grace shouldered the heavy responsibilities of teaching the children, cooking for the family and the ranch hands, canning food for winter, and guarding the health of all concerned

LEN JORDAN knew all too well that his way could not be eased by any subsidies from the government Those who know him realize that, even if such help were available, he would rather make his way unaided.

The fact that the voters of his state in a surprise verdict nominated and elected him governor four years ago is a tribute not only to his sturdy personal qualities but to the people of that state.

It also throws light upon the fact that throughout the three years of controversy over the now famous Hell's Canyon dam, the state has without wavering stood against making the valley of the Snake a federal province and in favor of its development for and by local interests

The Jordan story is a reminder that this country will never lack frontiers to win so long as it has people with the qualities needed to discover them.

No News in Nudism

By TRUMAN TWILL

If nudism ever gets back into the news now, it will have to prove itself more sensational than the semi-nudism now commonplace among Americans who once would have gulped at revealing their calves or forearms.

Nudism dropped out of the news when nudists were beaten at their own game. What began to gain momentum with bathing suits that left nothing to the imagination now has gained so much that male golfers are traipsing about the meadowlands in pants whacked off above the knees.

There isn't a male person left in the land who hasn't been stopped in his tracks by the illusion that a female person in a strapless sun dress seated in a convertible is peering nonchalantly at the world while garbed in nothing at all.

More bare flesh can be viewed these days in a 30-minute tour of Suburbia on Saturday afternoon than two generations of burlesque patrons saw in the palmiest days of their favorite pastime.

Little children, getting the idea, now are so uninhibited about their lack of clothing it soon will be a news picture only when one is found who is fully clothed.

Strong men have quit staying aay from supermarkets out of respect for uninhibited women who nonchalantly come to these places to shop in garb that once would have been too casual to wear to the front door to tell the brush man to buzz off because the lady of the house was taking a bath.

Moreover, women with no previous record of squeamishness in such matters have been known to avert their eyes when confronted with the sight of men shopping in public places although being obvious refugees from a locker room fire.

It is no wonder that in the face of all this—and much more—the nudists have all but dropped out of attention. It is as though the rest of the country had caught them in swimming and swiped their undergarments.

Contrary to the views of a handful of critics who are shocked by the sight of a human body and keep trying to find something morally wrong about it, it's nothing more or less than the final disintegration of the false modesty fostered in this country during the 18th and 19th centuries and the first few years of the 20th.

It's not a matter of morals. It's a matter of judgment and taste, and these vary widely in different parts of the country. Things are done as a matter of course in California, for example, that would be wholly out of place in Minnesota. There is a difference between a summer resort and an ordinary town.

But freedom of exposure has taken the zing out of nudism. The only way nudists could be sensational now would be to show up in long underwear, high button shoes, long sleeves and a strong sense of indignation. That would be about the most indecent thing imaginable under present circumstances.

GRIN AND BEAR IT By George Lichty

"I could make use of your technique at the office, dear! . . How do you always manage to look so busy? . ."

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Real News Newsreel

A New York mother must hold the all-American record for tearing up parking tickets.

She could be the Anti-Parking-Ticket Mother of the Year. The woman ignored 73 tickets, 65 for parking in restricted areas, four for parking at bus steps, three for double parking and one for driving with defective lights. . . . Evidently she just didn't like tickets and couldn't stand one of them around the house.

Most folks feel something like that, but after a second or third ticket they decide that the police know best.

We often grab a parking ticket from our car, resolved never to pay the least attention to the darned thing. . . . We decide the law is outrageous, the fire hydrant is illegal and the police department engaged in a great conspiracy against us, but we have never been able to ignore one over night, and get away with it.

—:—

The Sioux Indians have named a Miss America. . . . It must be just another feather in her cap. This Indian Miss America won with clothes on. . . . No other Miss America can make that statement.

They are calling this the "Saratoga-At-Saratoga-Positively" race meeting. . . . We miss the Saratoga hotel with the faded roller curtains, the open plumbing and the coil or rope at the foot of the bed in case of fire.

Two men ran a mile under four minutes the other night. . . No taxi, truck or teen-age driver at their heels either.

That was quite a party thrown for Herbert Hoover, ex-President and a great American who over the years got a merciless roughing up from his countrymen for talking straight, calling the cards as he saw them, putting honor above the main chance and believing 100 per cent in the American way.

A hero for his work for the starving victims of World War I, Herbert scaled the highest of public esteem and was chosen President, only to be crossed up by a jinx which put his White House chair on the "brink of an abyss." At the very peak of national prosperity, happiness, easy living and good clean fun, the worst depression in history collided with Hoover head-on.

From the Number One Humanitarian, the Great Rescuer, the Good Servant to the starving Belgians and a heroic American figure-whamme! —everything went black, and he became Mister Depression, Low Man on the Totem Pole, Simon Legree, Old Man Blizzard and the Villain of the Piece.

He was the most visible target and everybody wanted to blame someone. Fate was playing some low tricks on him, and just before the bust it made him use 10 little words, "the two-car garage and a chicken in every pot," which were to make the going ever tougher. Millions had to settle for a garage in every memory and an apple in every sales program.

Hoover was no more to blame than Ty Cobb, Man o'War, the Model T car, the caterpillar moth, the Dodger pitching staff, the smaller catsup bottle or a slight lapse in the form of Evers, Tinker and Chance. But he had to stand and take it.

Over the years he came back into the highest public esteem through his sense of fidelity, his refusal to play the artful dodger in any situation, or sulk in the corner or belittle any of the things that had made America great.

Herbert Hoover is quite a study: A man who never sacrificed a principle for a vote, played "Expediency" across the board, belittled the ways of our forefathers or discovered a way of life in which it was all done by push-buttons.

News of Other Years

40 YEARS AGO — The Japanese government was preparing for war. The fleet was manned ready for action, the army was ready, and several army corps were ready to go on board transports which were fully provisioned and there was no doubt that the ultimatum delivered to Germany would be denied and that immediate hostilities would follow.

The government's campaign to stimulate home repairing strode forward with the pledges of 1,131 banks, including the Marion County Bank here, to cooperate by making loans for such improvements.

An opinion that a majority of the wells in Marion County were unfit sources for drinking water at this season of the year was expressed by Dr. N. Sifritt, county health commissioner, after he had received results of analyses from the state laboratory showing that 10 wells in Caledonia were contaminated.

10 YEARS AGO — Field Marshal Guenther Von Kluge had pulled most of his armor from the dwindling Normandy front and stepped up the tempo of his rush through his Falaise escape gap, narrowed to eight miles.

Altrusa Club Prepares for Coming Year

With the first meeting less than a month in the offing, committees named earlier in the season by Miss Ferol Burley, president of the Marion Altrusa Club, are busy with plans for the 1954-55 season.

Miss Frances Coup, program coordinator is planning a full season of interesting speakers and other committees are lining up their work. The first meeting will be held Sept. 14 in the Forest Lawn Presbyterian Church Community House and at this time plans for the year will be outlined.

Corrine Levien Becomes Bride of Gary P. McAfee

In a ceremony at 2:30 p.m. yesterday in Epworth Methodist Church, Miss Corrine Y. Levien, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Levien of 990 E. Church St. became the bride of Gary P. McAfee. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. McAfee of 345 Belmont St.

Rev. Sheridan T. Walker, the church's parish minister, officiated. Organist was Mrs. George Lane and Mr. Lane was vocal soloist.

DECORATING THE altar were white gladioli and greenery, with palms forming a background for the two candelabra which were tied with white satin bows. Bows of the white satin ribbon marked the family pews.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a waltz-length gown of chantilly lace and nylon net over taffeta. Fitted bodice of the dress was accented with shirred three-quarter-length sleeves, and lace mitts extended into points over the hands. The veil of bridal illusion was held by a tiara of seed pearls and lace. A white orchid with feathered carnations caught by satin streamers on a white Bible was carried by the bride, and her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Pauline Levien, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Her waltz-length gown was of aqua net over taffeta, and she wore a matching headband of braided taffeta and a nose-length veil caught on the side with a pink carnation. Her colonial bouquet of pink and aqua carnations was tied with pink satin streamers.

Bridesmaid was Miss Sallyann Knickle. Her outfit was identical with that of the maid of honor, except in shell pink, with an aqua carnation for her headband, and aqua streamers on her bouquet.

David Haas, cousin of the bride, and Miss Judy Bish, cousin of the bridegroom, were the candle lighters. The latter's gown of shell pink nylon net over taffeta and her headband and flowers were like those of the bridesmaid.

—:—

THE BRIDE'S MOTHER wore a powder blue dress with navy accessories, and a corsage of pink carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a dress in a green shade with gold and copper brown accessories, and a white carnation corsage.

John Gantt of Marion was best man, and ushers were Bill Bosler of Canton and Richard Siler of Ashland.

A reception was held in the church parlors. Centering the table was a three-tier wedding cake topped with miniature bride and groom figures surrounded with huckleberry foliage, and double candelabra holding pink candles. Additional table decorations were shell pink gladioli and aqua candles. Mrs. Beverly Tewalt and Miss Suzanne Blessing served.

When the couple left on a wedding trip to Niagara Falls, the New England States, and Canada, the bride was wearing an ice-blue princess style dress of dacron with navy blue accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Graduated from Harding High School in 1952, she was employed recently with Dowler & McCreight Accountants. Her husband, also a graduate of Harding High School with the class of 1952, was employed during his summer vacation at the Pollak Steel Co. He will be a junior at Manchester College at North Manchester, Ind., this fall and he and his bride will make their home at North Manchester.

The wedding rehearsal party was held Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. McAfee. Gifts of the bride to her attendants were rhinestone necklaces, and costume jewelry to the reception assistants. Her gift to the bridegroom was a sterling silver identification bracelet. The best man and ushers were presented tieclasps and cuff links.

Out-of-town guests were from Ashland, Toledo, Canton and Cleveland, and Silver Springs, Md.

Veteran Sailor Closes Career In Death Valley

Area's Superintendent Resigns; Once Sailed Ocean in 21-Foot Boat

LAS VEGAS, Nev (UP) — T Raymond Goodwin spent his youth on the sea, even sailed a 21-foot boat across the Atlantic but he sought out one of the driest spots in the world to make sure he would amount to something

Goodwin, 77, retired March 31 as superintendent of the National Monument in southern California's Death Valley He spent 31 years in the scorching desert waste that claimed the lives of many gold-seeking '49'ers

During his retreat from the sea, Goodwin invented a highway paving composition that is still used, watched Death Valley change from an inaccessible inferno to one of the nation's top tourist centers and met his share of notables

Goodwin was born in Norwich, Conn, and moved to Providence, R I, where he developed a great love for the sea and yachting.

In 1911, he and two other men sailed the Atlantic to Italy in a 21-foot boat equipped with sails and a two-horsepower engine.

"King Victor Emmanuel of Italy offered 5,000 lira for the winner of a trans-Atlantic motorboat race," Goodwin recalled. "Thomas Fleming Day, publisher of a sea magazine (The Rudder) was trying to promote the race here in the United States, but he could get no entrants"

Day didn't give up He promised the King he would get the smallest boat he could find and make the trip

The tiny Sea Bird was refitted for the trip and made the crossing in 38 days The little boat was escorted up the Tiber River to Rome by an Italian destroyer, Goodwin said, and there he, Day and a Providence merchant, Fred B Thurber, were guests of the government

"I was a gigolo for wealthy yachtsmen after the trip," Goodwin said, 'but then I had to make a decision

"I knew if I was ever to amount to anything I had to make a clean break"

And he did He left a thriving music store and the presidency of the Narragansett Bay Yacht Racing Assn and went to Yuma, Ariz, a pretty dry spot in its own right He eventually settled in Death Valley, which is as dry as they come

Goodwin worked as a Bureau of Reclamation project engineer on the Yuma project, later tried his hand at cotton farming highway engineering and surveying

Goodwin discovered his highway paving composition by accident He scraped some cheap oil off a gravel roadbed one night to allow traffic to pass Re-spreading the oil-gravel mixture next day he found it to be like asphalt paving which cost 10 times as much

The discovery led to road superintendent jobs with the National Park Service Goodwin served at Yosemite and Sequoia in California Crater Lake, Ore, Yellowstone, and finally Death Valley

The Death Valley job put Goodwin in contact with the late famed "Death Valley Scotty"

"Scotty and I used to kid each other about who was going to bury the other," Goodwin said "Scotty visited me in the hospital after I had been hurt in a traffic accident in 1952, and I told him I still was going to bury him. He said 'you might do that, but right now I've got the edge on you"

Goodwin delivered one of the eulogies at Scotty's funeral last Jan 7

Goodwin looks with pride on his accomplishments at Death Valley His road-building campaign began in 1933 when 10,000 persons visited the monument Last year 339,000 persons were logged in the blazing alley

Now that he is retired and has put down the stigma of being a yachting "gigolo" with solid accomplishment, Goodwin is getting the boating urge again

Glittering Las Vegas is a good distance from the ocean, but Goodwin has another out — vast Lake Mead just 30 miles away.

"Who knows?" he said "I might consider piloting one of those fancy hotel yachts around the lake"

If he does, he'll be well qualified Goodwin helped write the regulations at the request of the late President Franklin Roosevelt when the area first was opened to the public

Erie Railroader Ends Career Begun in Marion 45 Years Ago

RICHWOOD — Sixty-five-year-old Robert Roy Nickels of near Richwood retired last month after 45 years with the Erie Railroad in Marion

His future plans include spending his winters in Florida but right now it doesn't look as though he's doing too much retiring He and Mrs Nickels are just putting the finishing touches on their new bungalow and Mr Nickels is doing quite a few odd jobs such as outdoors painting fixing windows and putting in storm doors The former Marion railroader just doesn't fit the role of being retired.

Nickels moved to Marion in 1906 and started working for the Erie in 1909 at the age of 20 He worked his way up to yard conductor the job he held at the time of retirement on July 9 Mr and Mrs. Nickels lived at 283 S Prospect St before he retired and they decided to build a home on Route 47 near Richwood

On those trips to Florida, Nickels hopes to take in a few races and ball games a couple of his favorite pastimes His wife is in favor of those pastimes too, since she is also quite a sports fan In addition, the couple hope to plant a garden on their 10-acre site, where they'll spend a good deal of time

The Nickels have one daughter Mrs. Frank Phillips of 343 Pearl St, and one granddaughter Patricia wife of Dr C C Conklin, Marion dentist

In all his 45 years with the Erie Nickels was only injured twice in railroad accidents, which he believes is quite a record
